Kissinger Said Quite Optimistic Over Oil Embargo

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger says he's "quite optimistic" that the Arab oil embargo will soon be lifted.

Kissinger said he is also confident several oil-producing Arab nations will recommend such action themselves at a February 14 oil conference in Tripoli.

Ending the embargo "will be the principle item on the agenda at the conference," he told reporters Thursday after testifying before a closed-door meeting of the House Ways and Means Committee.

But even as Kissinger was expressing optimism, the foreign minister of Kuwait was quoted as saying his country would not consider lifting the boycott unless Israel pledges to withdraw from all occupied territory.

And another Arab nation, Algeria, indicated it felt any discussion of world fuel problems should be kept within the United Nations framework. It petitioned Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim for an urgent U.N. General Assembly meeting on the situation.

Meanwhile, the Nixon administration has reportedly lowered its expectations for another energy conference, one of oil-consuming nations to begin in Washington on February 11. Ranking U.S. officials say this is partly because administration infighting has kept the government from coming up with a clear set of objectives.

In other energy developments Thursday:

—In Houston, Gulf Oil Co. said it will deliver 17 per cent less gasoline in February to its service stations than planned due to a federal allocation requirement that it divert part of its crude oil stocks for sale to other oil companies.

—Secretary of Defense James R. Schlesinger told a House Armed Services subcommittee that if the Arab embargo doesn't end soon, the fighting readiness of U.S. military forces will be impaired.

—Senate Interior Committee Chairman Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said he is willing to drop a controversial excess-profits provision from the emergency energy bill in return for tough price controls on oil in an effort to get the stalled bill moving again.

Truck Protest Spreads

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Demands by independent truck drivers for lower fuel prices and more money for the cargo they haul spurred a shutdown that spread across parts of 20 states today in the East, the South, Appalachia and the Midwest.

There were scattered reports of parked rigs in California and Arizona.

Several thousand truckers apparently had joined the action. But in most of the 20 states, some independents were still operating.

Some plants announced layoffs, others said they couldn't stay in business much longer and Pennsylvania Gov. Milton Shapp prepared to call out the National Guard to halt the violence that claimed one life in his state Thursday.

One New Jersey refinery kept its gasoline trucks parked as pickets marched outside.

State police patrolled highways in some Appalachian states. Union drivers not honoring the shutdown call traveled in groups of threes and fours in other areas. On one Virginia highway early today groups of trucks slowed down at bridges and intersections, looking for nails and other obstacles which caused some drivers to head home.

Reports received from truck stops in several states were that rigs had blocked the fuel lanes. "I just told the drivers to pull in front of my pumps and block them," said Don King, a truck stop manager in Fenton, Mo. "These guys are my bread and butter and whatever they want, I'll go along with them."

Businesses dependent on trucking were beginning to feel the impact of the action, which started last week in Ohio and Pennsylvania but did not begin spreading much further until Thursday.

A few small firms in Ohio and West Virginia announced layoffs Thursday and some Midwest meat packing plants said they may soon feel the pinch.

The shutdown, a product of the energy crisis, could make the situation worse if it continues.

A dozen major coal mines in Appalachia were said to be running critically short of supplies and near a shutdown.

And in a few areas officials expressed concern that gasoline would not be delivered by independent drivers to service stations badly in need of their February allotments.

State and federal officials pleaded with the drivers to give the government a chance to make good on its pledge earlier this week to increase fuel supplies and raise freight rates.

But Shapp, emerging from a Thursday night meeting in Pittsburgh with representatives of independent drivers, said "the truckers made it clear they will have their shutdown."

Shapp's lieutenant governor, Ernest Kline, said Shapp would sign the order calling out the National Guard today.

A spokesman for Gov. John Gilligan says the governor has no immediate plans to call out the Ohio National Guard to deal with the independent truckers' strike.

Robert Tenenbaum, the governor's press aide, noted the situation was "much worse" in Pennsylvania, where Gov. Milton Shapp reportedly was ready to send out troops to keep peace on the highways. A trucker was killed in that state Thursday after a rock was hurled through his windshield.

There were no reports of major violence in Ohio Thursday in connection with the shutdown, but some industries were feeling the impact.

Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. announced it will suspend production of flat rolled steel products Monday because of its inability to ship products.

The action affected hot and cold rolling mills employing more than 1,000 workers. Company officials said the shutdowns would be reviewed daily with truckers developments and indicated more curtailments might be necessary.

Spokesmen for the Republican Steel Corp., also at Youngstown, reported truck movement at their plant had "dried up."

And Armco Steel Corp. shut down its Washington Court House plant indefinitely because of the truck shortage. The plant employs 565 persons.

In Warren, the Ohio Corrugating Co., which employs 150, shut down because it couldn't get steel. The Transue and Williams Forging Co. said it will have to shut down in three to seven days, idling 1,044 workers, because of lack of trucks.

The R. Kuntzman Trucking Co. and Deiona Trucking Co. of Alliance closed operations after their drivers joined the truckers' protest.

George Rynn, president of the Council of Independent Truckers in Akron said truck traffic was virtually nonexistent in that area.

Harvey M. Fortnoff, owner of Pop's Truck Stop on Ohio 14 in Streetsboro closed his pumps at the request of striking truckers after Union 76 raised diesel fuel prices five cents a gallon to 52.9 cents.

Some truckers began their strike early Thursday although the nationwide shutdown apparently wasn't supposed to begin until early today. The Ohio Highway Patrol said it was providing escorts to truckers who feared incidents on the highways.

Stark County Common Pleas Judge Ira Turpin issued a permanent injunction Thursday against picketing and harassment of working drivers.

The order was sought by 12 Canton-area firms, mostly steel haulers and commodity shippers, where strikers blocked entrances and exits.

About 500 truckers from southwestern Ohio and northern Kentucky voted at a meeting at Franklin, Ohio, Thursday to join the walkout.

Carl Bray, 35, of Franklin, a protest leader, told the gathering, "Everybody is keyed up and I urge all of you to be calm. If all trucks in Cincinnati, Middletown, Hamilton and Lexington stay off the road and there is no violence, we won't be named varmits."

Bray declared that the shutdown will continue "until they roll fuel prices down. We are going to win this thing over the damn oil companies."

Details Of Health Plan Disclosed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The national health insurance plan being readied by President Nixon would guarantee that no one would pay more than $1,500 a year in medical expenses, according to an initial administration estimate.

For this protection, a single wage earner would pay a monthly premium of $6.56. For most workers with a family, the premium might be $19.32 a month.

The rates are estimates provided Thursday by Caspar W. Weinberger, secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

The administration still is putting some finishing touches on the proposals for introduction in Congress on Tuesday, Weinberger said.

But attached to the estimates are numerous factors that could affect not only the individual premiums, but also total out-of-pocket health expenses under the administration program.

Premiums also could vary from plan to plan. The administration plan is only a minimum. Employers and workers could select fuller coverage at higher rates. There's nothing in the proposal to keep employers from paying workers' premiums in full.

A tax proposal under consideration in the administration could cut the take-home pay for the average taxpayer by $2.68 a month. This would happen if the government taxes workers on the money employers contribute toward health premiums. The contributions aren't taxable income now.

The proposed Nixon program also would cover different expenses than covered in current standard Blue Cross-Blue Shield plans.

Under the most recently available administration proposals, most wage earners would have to pick up their first $150 in medical expenses every year. For medical expenses over 50, participants would have to pay 25 per cent bills up to the $1,500 limit.

That means they might have to pay, for example, the full cost of a routine appendectomy if they haven't already had $150 in expenses. Current standard Blue Cross-Blue Shield plans would pay the whole cost of the operation, regardless of previous medical expenses.

On the other hand, the administration plan would cover some items like routine dental expenses for youngsters under 13. Standard Blue Cross-Blue Shield doesn't cover that.

Other benefits that would be covered in minimum plans include maternity care, child care up to age six, eyeglasses and hearing aids up to age 13, family planning, some mental illness costs, and outpatient prescription and life saving drugs.

Medicare, under the Nixon proposals, would cover the same people it now covers, with the benefits extended to mirror the national health insurance coverage.

Employers would pick up 65 per cent of premiums for the minimum plan the first few years, with their share rising to 75 per cent.

Skylab Enters Final Week

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Skylab 3's astronauts began their 12th and final week in orbit today, confident they have set guidelines for future long-term space missions.

Gerald P. Carr, William R. Pogue and Edward G. Gibson are on the home leg of their 84-day flight, heading for splashdown in the Pacific Ocean next Friday.

"I think the biggest major accomplishment is that we've shown that man can come up here and set up housekeeping in space, and that he can adjust to his new environment," Carr said Thursday in answering questions from newsmen on the ground.

Pogue said the astronauts will return to earth with tens of thousands of photos and miles of electronic tape from their earth resources, solar astronomy, medical and other experiments.

"Some of the results will probably manifest themselves in new theories and new ideas almost immediately," he said. "Others will take a long time before they will actually go through the full process of moving through basic theories into applications. We're very excited about the potential benefits."

Gibson said the astronauts expect no major medical problems on returning to earth's gravity after their record stay in weightlessness.

"There are muscles which we haven't used and they may be sore," he said. "We haven't had any gravity stimulus to our inner ear. We don't know exactly how that's going to affect us in terms of dizziness. But all in all I think we'll come out pretty well."

Workers Laid Off At Dayton Plants

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Another 1,000 General Motors Corp. workers here were laid off Thursday, bringing to 3,052 the number released from their jobs indefinitely since November.

GM said 445 workers in the Delco-Moraine Division, 317 in the Inland Division and 225 in the Frigidaire Division were laid off as part of a nationwide slowdown in production.

Food Prices Continue To Climb Across Nation, Ohio

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

Higher prices for beef and eggs pushed up the family grocery bill during January and boosted the total to a level 14 per cent above last March, an Associated Press marketbasket survey shows.

There were only two bright spots at the supermarket during the month: butter and pork chops both went down in many areas and kept the totals from being even higher than they were.

The AP checked the price of 15 food and nonfood items in 13 cities on March 1 and has rechecked at the beginning of each succeeding month.

The latest survey showed that during January, the bill for the total marketbasket went up in nine cities, rising an average of 3 per cent, and was down in four, declining an average of 3 per cent.

That was an improvement over December, when the marketbasket bill rose in 12 of 13 cities checked, up an average of 2 per cent.

In every city, however, the total was well above the figure last March. The increases over 11 months ranged from 1 per cent in Salt Lake City — where declines in the price of pork chops and frankfurters kept the January total down — to 22 per cent in Philadelphia and Boston.

A look at the total number of items didn't provide any encouragement. Of 195 items checked, 38 per cent went up in price during January; 12 per cent declined; 41 per cent were unchanged; and 9 per cent were unavailable on one of the check dates.

During December, 28.7 per cent of the items checked went up in price; 11.8 per cent went down; 48.7 per cent were unchanged; and 10.8 per cent were unavailable.

Beef price increases reflected recently reported hikes in the wholesale cost of the meat. Chopped chuck was up in eight of the cities checked and allbeef frankfurters rose in seven cities. Increases in the price of chuck averaged a whopping 13 per cent and pushed the cost of hamburger to about $1.40 a pound in most cities.

Some areas reported a decline in beef prices toward the end of the month as the wholesale prices leveled off. The butcher at Ralph's Market in Los Angeles — where chuck went from $1.19 to 98 cents a pound — said nearly all beef prices were down, along with prices for pork, veal and lamb.

Eggs and cookies also were up in many areas. Chocolate chip cookies, up in 12 cities and unchanged in one, jumped an average of 8 per cent, generally about six or eight cents a bag. Eggs were up 11 cities and unchanged in two. The average increase was 3.5 per cent.

The AP survey covered Albuquerque, N.M.; Atlanta; Boston; Chicago; Dallas; Detroit; Los Angeles; Miami; New York; Philadelphia; Providence, R.I.; Salt Lake City, and Seattle.

The items checked were chopped chuck, center cut pork chops, frozen orange juice, paper towels, coffee, butter, eggs, peanut butter, detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, cookies, milk, all-beef franks and sugar.

Suppose for a few minutes there was no gasoline shortage. It wouldn't matter because transportation would have to be free and you would need plenty of time to shop 12 Ohio cities for the best grocery store prices on 14 items.

Before starting, note that prices on those selected items in those cities rose an average of 22 cents that day over December 31. The same brands are checked each month in this Associated Press survey.

You could start at Conneaut where the survey showed that $1.29 cents per pound for center cut pork chops was the best price in the cities surveyed. You also could get the best price on all-beef frankfurters there — 98 cents per pound, one cent higher than Portsmouth.

Massillon would be the best place to shop for: ground chuck steak at 89 cents per pound; one pound of butter at 67 cents; a six-ounce can of frozen orange juice at 22 cents, and a 12-ounce jar of peanut butter at 51 cents. Akron and Columbus also had 51-cent peanut butter. Akron and Cleveland had the best price on an eight-ounce can of tomato sauce, 13 cents.

Medium white eggs at 74 cents in Cleveland was the best price found.

A 14½-ounce bag of chocolate chip cookies cost 69 cents in Lima, at least six cents cheaper than any other store where prices were checked.

The best price on one quart of whole milk was 35 cents at Lima.

A five-pound bag of granulated sugar sold for 57 cents at one Columbus store, at least 24 cents cheaper than any other store checked.

In the category of non-food grocery items checked, the best price on a two-roll pack of paper towels was 47 cents at Portsmouth and Toledo. A 49-ounce box of detergent was available in Toledo for 85 cents and a fabric softener cost 19 cents at the same store.

Some of the prices obviously were loss leaders — retail jargon for an item priced exceptionally low to lure shoppers. Most prices however stayed within a narrow range, only a few cents off the average.

The average price on pork chops was $1.60 per pound, with the highest price, $1.89, found at Columbus.

Ground chuck averaged $1.34 per pound, up nine cents from the December average. Frankfurters averaged $1.28 per pound, down a cent and a half from the previous check, while eggs were up an average of one cent to 93 cents per dozen for medium whites.

Butter, at an average of 93 cents, was up one cent over December while the cookies averaged 74½ cents, up five cents from the Christmas-New Year period.

Orange juice and peanut butter averages were both down a fraction of a cent from the end-of-December.

Milk at 42 cents and tomato sauce at 14.5 cents were both up an average of 1.3 cents per quantity and sugar was down 7.5 cents.

pers. Most prices however stayed within a narrow range, only a few cents off the average.

The average price on pork chops was $1.60 per pound, with the highest price, $1.89, found at Columbus.

Ground chuck averaged $1.34 per pound, up nine cents from the December average. Frankfurters averaged $1.28 per pound, down a cent and a half from the previous check, while eggs were up an average of one cent to 93 cents per dozen for medium whites.

Butter, at an average of 93 cents, was up one cent over December while the cookies averaged 74½ cents, up five cents from the Christmas-New Year period.

Orange juice and peanut butter averages were both down a fraction of a cent from the end-of-December.

Milk at 42 cents and tomato sauce at 14.5 cents were both up an average of 1.3 cents per quantity and sugar was down 7.5 cents.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved sharply lower in slow trading today, amid continuing economic uncertainties.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon was down 9.38 at 846.17, little changed from a half-hour earlier, while declines led advances on the New York Stock Exchange by 8 to 3.

"There's some disappointment, after all the talk on a lifting of the Arab oil embargo, that there's been no confirmation from the Arabs," said Newton Zinder, analyst with E.F. Hutton & Co.

Also depressing the market, brokers said, was the slowing economy plus inflation. Today's government report that the unemployment rate showed its largest jump in four years last month gave another blow to market morale, analysts said.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index at noon was down .37 to 96.87, while the NYSE composite index was down .52 to 51.12.

Oils were off, with Standard of Indiana off 1/2 to 92 1/4; Gulf, down 1/2 to 23 1/2; and Occidental, off 1/2 to 11 1/2.

Only 9 Survive Airliner Crash

PAGO PAGO, American Samoa (AP) — Seven Americans and two New Zealanders survived the crash of a Pan American Airways 707 jet on this South Pacific island that killed 92 persons, officials said.

The plane crashed 3,000 feet short of the Pago Pago Airport during heavy rain at 11:41 p.m. local time on Wednesday, or 6:52 a.m. EDT Thursday, officials said.

The flight originated in Auckland, New Zealand and carried 91 passengers and a crew of 10, including 36 U.S. residents. The plane was enroute to Honolulu and Los Angeles.

Seven of the survivors were in critical condition at the L.B.J. Tropical Medical Center, Dr. Peter F. Beals said in a telephone interview Thursday night.

"All suffered burns of varying degrees and percentages and seven are undergoing treatment in our intensive care unit," said Beals, who is director of medical services.

One survivor was in satisfactory condition and another in good condition.

An American Samoan Government official said earlier that 10 persons pulled from the burning wreckage, four had died at the hospital. Beals said only one died at the hospital.

Pan American officials identified her as Joan Merrill, 52, of Alta Loma, Calif. Her husband, Maury Merrill, is among the survivors.

Also among the survivors was crew member James S. Philipps of Sonoma, Calif., and Dick Smith of Phoenix, Ariz., an Olympic diving coach returning from the Commonwealth Games in New Zealand. Smith telephoned a friend saying he had only suffered minor head injuries.

Other survivors were Roger Cann, 23, New Zealand; Mary Cann, 11, New Zealand; Ernest Meunster, 46, Merced, Calif.; Robert H. and Loraine Kindermann, both 60 of Rolling Meadows, Ill.; Charles Culberson, 30, United States, address unknown.

A team of six investigators from the National Transportation Safety Board was dispatched to Pago Pago, on one of the seven islands in the U.S. Territory in the South Pacific.

George Miyachi, spokesman for the Federal Aviation Administration Pacific Asia regional headquarters in Honolulu, said the Pago Pago airport control tower gave the pilot clearance to make an instrument approach just before the crash. Miyachi said that was because of one-half mile visibility in the rain.

It wasn't known if the plane was using instruments to land when the crash occurred, he said.

Plywood Price-Fix Suit Filed

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — The nation's seven largest plywood manufacturers have been named in a suit filed here charging a price-fixing conspiracy.

The complaint — filed Tuesday in U.S. District Court on behalf of some Kansas City area builders, real estate firms and lumber companies — asks for $3 million in damages.

It alleges the defendants computed railroad freight rates from plants in the Pacific Northwest for delivery prices from plants in Southern and inland United States and have refused to permit arrangements for cheaper methods of transportation.

Named as defendants are the Weyerhaeuser Co., Washington State; Georgia-Pacific Corp., Georgia; Boise-Cascade Corp., Delaware; Champion International Corp., New York; Vancouver Plywood Co., Inc., Louisiana; and Willamette Industries Inc., Oregon.

The American Plywood Association, Tacoma, Wash., was named a coconspirator but not a defendant.

Kenton C. Granger, attorney for the plaintiffs who filed the petition, said the suit may be consolidated with seven similar ones to be considered by a federal panel on Feb. 7. He said five class-action suits in New Orleans, one in Philadelphia and one in New York have been filed in the last year.

Improvements Set For 3 Intersections

Representative Myrl H. Shoemaker (D-88) announced today that three highway intersections in Pickaway County are scheduled to be upgraded.

Representative Shoemaker noted that he had requested the Ohio Department of Transportation (ODOT) to upgrade the intersections at State Route-104 and US-22; State Route-56 and State Route 104; and US-22 and State Route-56 because of the potential traffic hazards at these locations.

Representative Shoemaker stated that he had been informed by ODOT District Six Deputy Director Bernard Hurst, that the following improvements have been scheduled:

US-22 and SR-56—1. Renew stop bars on SR-56; 2. Install an overhead Flasher; 3. Upgrade signs—Install 48" dual STOP and 48" STOP AHEAD signs.

US-22 and SR-104—1. Add dual cross road signs with 34 MPH advisory signs on US-22; 2. Add dual 48" STOP and 48" STOP AHEAD signs on both north and south bound SR-104; 3. Remove stop signs in pavement and cut pavement out so that north and south bound vehicles stop perpendicular to US-22; 4. Renew Stop bars; 5. Remove scrub trees on the west side of SR-104 north of US-22 that presently obscure sight distance.

SR-56 and SR-104—1. Renew stop bars; 2. Raise STOP signs on SR-56 - add dual 48" STOP and dual 48" STOP AHEAD signs on SR-56.

Representative Shoemaker also said that the improvements are to be completed by February 22, 1974. In addition the Ohio Department of Transportation will maintain a close surveillance of the US-22 and SR-104 intersection and if the accidents are not substantially reduced as a result of the improvements the ODOT would then install a traffic signal. Representative Shoemaker said that he was informed that the present volume of traffic using the US-22 and SR-104 intersection was much too low to warrant a signal—unless all other efforts to reduce accidents failed.

EPA Schedules Hearing Here

The Ohio Environmental Protection Agency announced it has scheduled a public meeting on the air pollution application for the Container Corporation.

The meeting will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday in the Circleville Municipal Building second floor.

The purpose of the meeting is to consider evidence, written or oral from any person, on compliance schedules of the company.

As required by state regulations, this company's request for an air pollution variance has been accompanied by a schedule of compliance, indicating in detail what steps will be taken to achieve compliance with regulations.

Individuals unable to attend the meeting may submit written testimony to the Hearing Clerk, Ohio EPA, 361 E. Broad St., Box 1049, Columbus, Ohio 43216 until the date of the meeting.

Compliance schedules for Container Corporation are available for public inspection at the Ohio EPA, 1313 Chesapeake Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

Improvements Set For 3 Intersections

Representative Myrl H. Shoemaker (D-88) announced today that three highway intersections in Pickaway County are scheduled to be upgraded.

Representative Shoemaker noted that he had requested the Ohio Department of Transportation (ODOT) to upgrade the intersections at State Route-104 and US-22; State Route-56 and State Route 104; and US-22 and State Route-56 because of the potential traffic hazards at these locations.

Representative Shoemaker stated that he had been informed by ODOT District Six Deputy Director Bernard Hurst, that the following improvements have been scheduled:

US-22 and SR-56—1. Renew stop bars on SR-56; 2. Install an overhead Flasher; 3. Upgrade signs—Install 48" dual STOP and 48" STOP AHEAD signs.

US-22 and SR-104—1. Add dual cross road signs with 34 MPH advisory signs on US-22; 2. Add dual 48" STOP and 48" STOP AHEAD signs on both north and south bound SR-104; 3. Remove stop signs in pavement and cut pavement out so that north and south bound vehicles stop perpendicular to US-22; 4. Renew Stop bars; 5. Remove scrub trees on the west side of SR-104 north of US-22 that presently obscure sight distance.

SR-56 and SR-104—1. Renew stop bars; 2. Raise STOP signs on SR-56 — add dual 48" STOP and dual 48" STOP AHEAD signs on SR-56.

Representative Shoemaker also said that the improvements are to be completed by February 22, 1974. In addition the Ohio Department of Transportation will maintain a close surveillance of the US-22 and SR-104 intersection and if the accidents are not substantially reduced as a result of the improvements the ODOT would then install a traffic signal. Representative Shoemaker said that he was informed that the present volume of traffic using the US-22 and SR-104 intersection was much too low to warrant a signal—unless all other efforts to reduce accidents failed.

EPA Schedules Hearing Here

The Ohio Environmental Protection Agency announced it has scheduled a public meeting on the air pollution application for the Container Corporation.

The meeting will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday in the Circleville Municipal Building second floor.

The purpose of the meeting is to consider evidence, written or oral from any person, on compliance schedules of the company.

As required by state regulations, this company's request for an air pollution variance has been accompanied by a schedule of compliance, indicating in detail what steps will be taken to achieve compliance with regulations. Individuals unable to attend the meeting may submit written testimony to the Hearing Clerk, Ohio EPA, 361 E. Broad St., Box 1049, Columbus, Ohio 43216 until the date of the meeting.

Compliance schedules for Container Corporation are available for public inspection at the Ohio EPA, 1313 Chesapeake Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

'Tecumseh!' Sound Track Released On LP Album

Chillicothe, Ohio: The musical score of Ohio's newest outdoor drama, "TECUMSEH!", is now available to the public. This beautiful suite by American Indian composer Carl T. Fischer received wide acclaim from critics and audiences attending the premier season of "TECUMSEH!" and will continue as an integral part of the drama for the 1974 season.

Entitled "Reflections of an Indian Boy" the suite is Fischer's final work and was completed only a few days before his untimely death in 1954. His long time friend and collaborator, Frankie Lane, arranged for Victor Young of the Cleveland Symphony to orchestrate the score, and in 1971 Lane donated the music to "TECUMSEH!" as a living memorial to Carl Fischer's great talent and rich Indian heritage. "TECUMSEH!" producer W. L. "Rusty" Mundell first heard the piece in 1960, while a Marine officer stationed at Albany, Ga. Later, when he began looking for theme music for a drama which portrays the life and death of a famed Shawnee warrior, Mundell recalled the melodies he had heard years earlier.

The music is lush, recounting in musical terms, Indian life in the plains and canyons. It is truly Indian music written by an Indian, with each of the nine sections based on tribal lore.

The score was recorded in England by the London Symphony Orchestra under direction of Erich Kunzel and has now been released in a stereo, long play album. For information write "TECUMSEH!", Box 73, Chillicothe, Ohio.

A Page Of Opinion

Income Problems

In the last decade many families have risen into the middle income group. But some of them, unfortunately, strive to adjust too quickly to the standards in that bracket, so they find the price tag rather stiff.

Everyone cannot be a millionaire and current taxes make it harder to become one. The result as reflected in various statistical studies is that the middle income group is expanding rapidly and exerting the greatest effect upon American living.

It is natural that families ascending into the middle income group should develop many new wants. Better housing, better cars, additional home conveniences, better clothes and better schools for their children are a few of the demands generated by the change.

Many problems of the cities can be traced to the failure of new middle income families to find the type of homes they want—at a price they can afford to pay. This has been a big factor in the growth of suburban areas.

And a by-product is the headache of cities which many believe are destined to be inhabited by two classes only—the rich, able to pay for the luxury of living there, and the poor, unable to finance the move out of the city to the still more expensive life of the suburbs.

Those who do move out encounter new problems. Long-established suburban families have had time to acquire most of the appurtenances for such living, but many of the newcomers make the mistake of trying to match the old-timers at one jump.

When a man moves to a higher income bracket, how can he help feeling puzzled if he finds it harder than ever to make both ends meet?

In-Cuba-Tion Period

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — The guess is that Brezhnev has flown to Cuba to tell Castro to pipe down in his references to the U.S. and to pull the plug on his love affair with China.

The trip has been billed as a friendly return visit in the wake of Castro's voyage to Moscow. But Brezhnev is not a man to fly that far to an inconsequential outpost of world Communism just to get hugged by another frustrated ballplayer. (Castro was turned down by the late Joe Cambria, a scout for the Washington Senators, when Fidel was pitching for the University of Havana.) Chuck Connors, who was driven into acting when the Brooklyn Dodgers let him go, is more than adequate as Brezhnev's official hugger.

—Florida would like to unload its heavy population of Cuban emigres on welfare and see them free to return to Mother Cuba.

Any one who comes up with a solution to all this will win a free trip to the Ghagos for one week, and one week with the Tosks, the two largest tribal groups of Albania. Which loves China, hates Russia, and is thinking of declaring war on the U.S.

Television's golf commentators hold all records for premature announcements:

Zeke—Now let's watch Lum Lum-bago, the sweetest swinger this side of Shawnee. Watch this swing while good old Connie Cornpone, who beat the best of 'em, explains it.

Connie—Notice how Lum brings that clubhead back low and slow and keeps that weight on his right side. Then look at the way he reaches that club up high and parallel to the ground. Now watch that downswing, and look at the way he moves that left side out of the way for the full, beautiful follow through.

Zeke—you're right, Connie. Well, Lum's drive caught the trap 84 yards down the fairway and he's dug in a foot deep. Now let's go to Barry Bumpstead on the 16th.

Barry - Thanks, Zeke, you're the greatest. We're watching the fourth shot of Mac McCloud on the 16th. He had two unlucky whiffs before hitting that big eucalyptus. But he still has a shot at top money here in the Ernest Borgnine Classic at beautiful Mugwump Golf and Country Club. Now back to you, Zeke.

Zeke—Thank you, Barry. I'm not the greatest; you are. Here comes Lum's ball. It's one of the greatest shots ever seen in golf! Headed right for that old stick! Just a moment. The ball is going into the crowd. It hits a baby on the head and ricochets onto the green! How about that for a great shot? Now over to the 18 ...

State Energy Bill In Trouble

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan's attempt to create an all-powerful Emergency Energy Board ran into trouble before it even was introduced into the legislature.

"Power grab," said several influential lawmakers from both parties.

Utility lobbyists are almost unanimously against the bill. They already are working for its defeat.

In extreme emergencies, the board could put into effect without hearings regulations binding on all Ohioans. Ordinarily its proposals would be approved, amended or rejected within 15 days by the General Assembly.

The board would have seven members, all appointed by Gilligan.

Tongue in cheek, Rep. Richard H. Finan, R-19 Cincinnati, told a legislative committee considering the problems of Daylight Savings Time: "It's true. A lot of people who live in Kentucky work in Cincinnati. That's the reason we have a double-decker bridge—so the people going south can drop their shoes to the ones going north."

Rep. Finan doesn't seek votes in Kentucky.

Problems Reported With Rationing Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Frederick Viewor, acting director of the state Highway Safety Department, says he has advised the Federal Energy Office in Washington the proposed gas rationing coupon program could cause problems in Ohio.

Viewor said the program would require Ohio to mail gas coupons to licensed drivers. But he noted Ohio law does not require notification of address changes by licensed drivers and as many as 3.2 million of the 7.5 million licensed drivers might have moved.

Speaking Of Your Health

The aerosol bomb has become a way of life. It may also become a way of illness, and even a way of death if its potential dangers are not eliminated. Physicians, scientists, and governmental health agencies are calling attention more and more to the dangers of these aerosol bombs.

Chronic lung conditions, irregularity of the heartbeat, and skin allergies are but a few of the concerns associated with the bombs.

Uncontrolled use of chemicals in these propellant, pressurized containers are dispersed in every phase of our existence.

The term "Use only as directed" on a can may absolve the manufacturer from a legal point of view, but the responsibility then falls on the user to exert every possible precaution.

Adhesive sprays, cough sprays, pesticide sprays, underarm sprays, and hair sprays are only a few that are in daily use within the "safe confines" of the home.

They are not safe is used liberally in unventilated areas.

A case was reported of a woman who collapsed after inhaling the spray of an oven cleaner. Emergency treatment was needed to save her life.

The danger of aerosol "sniffing" has been impressed on parents, for aerosol fatalities have been reported in young people who try "sniffing" for kicks.

Experimental studies in animals have demonstrated the most significant toxic effects of the gases and chemicals in use today in aerosol bombs.

Industry is cooperating with health agencies and consumer groups to reduce the hazards of the modern unleaded epidemic of aerosol bombing.

It is hoped that new safety standards and impending legislative regulations will make sprays safer and eliminate the massive threat to health that they present.

A careful re-evaluation should be made by the consumer. Many excellent products can be used just as effectively, and with greater safety, if they are not incorporated in the aerosol pollutants that threaten their health.

NEW YORK (AP) — Perhaps the least considered consequence of the developing shortages of basic commodities, and potentially one of the more positive ones, too, is the improved economic outlook for some poor nations.

Relative to the industrial countries, the fortunes of many of these countries has declined in the past decade. Dependent upon one or a few crops or minerals, they felt in no position to strike hard bargains.

The rapid industrialization of much of the world has now increased demand to the extent that a seller's market exists in many raw materials. Moreover, the Arab nations showed that this economic power could be used.

Most corporate buyers of basic commodities are now resigned to paying higher and higher prices, and thus the incomes of supplier countries are likely to improve somewhat.

Why not greatly? Because many of these same countries are ill-prepared to pay higher prices for oil, which is essential to their development. The advantage to them will, therefore, be a bit muted.

Again on the positive side, so much money is likely to pour into Mideast oil producing nations that they will be unable immediately to put it to work internally, leading to speculation that the Arabs might become investors in some of the depressed nations of Africa.

to a lesser degree in the middle Atlantic states, and certainly some higher prices, but no national calamity as had been feared.

The board's energy forum, which includes some of the most esteemed of university economists, also declared that there is no physical, worldwide shortage of crude petroleum, and that there is ample refining capacity.

However, as the 1974 economy becomes better understood—the forecast generally is for a first-half downturn and a second half trend to greater stability, more production, less inflation—some bankers, businessmen and others are becoming concerned about 1975, particularly as to exports.

Nixon Won't Testify At Trial

WASHINGTON (AP) — A White House spokesman says President Nixon will refuse to testify personally at the trial of John D. Ehrlichman, Nixon's former chief domestic adviser.

However, the spokesman left open the possibility the President might answer written questions in the state trial in California.

California Superior Court Judge Gordon Ringer on Tuesday said he would instruct Nixon to appear in the trial of Ehrlichman and two others in the burglary of the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

The defendants, Ehrlichman and former White House aides G. Gordon Liddy and David Young, have contended they should not be prosecuted for activities conducted in good faith as part of their official duties.

Nixon's refusal to appear might, in the long run, benefit their case by providing a basis for arguing that testimony vital to the defense was being withheld.

On Wednesday, Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe criticized the potential order as unrealistic because "the President of the United States can't appear in every justice of the peace court all over this country at the whim of that justice of the peace."

Deputy White House Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren said Nixon's lawyers will recommend that he decline to appear and that Nixon will head their advice.

However, he said the President might respond to written questions.

Ehrlichman's lawyer, Douglas Dalton, said he will continue his efforts to have a subpoena issued.

A Page Of Opinion

Income Problems

In the last decade many families have risen into the middle income group. But some of them, unfortunately, strive to adjust too quickly to the standards in that bracket, so they find the price tag rather stiff.

Everyone cannot be a millionaire and current taxes make it harder to become one. The result as reflected in various statistical studies is that the middle income group is expanding rapidly and exerting the greatest effect upon American living.

It is natural that families ascending into the middle income group should develop many new wants. Better housing, better cars, additional home conveniences, better clothes and better schools for their children are a few of the demands generated by the change.

Many problems of the cities can be traced to the failure of new middle income families to find the type of homes they want—at a price they can afford to pay. This has been a big factor in the growth of suburban areas.

And a by-product is the headache of cities which many believe are destined to be inhabited by two classes only—the rich, able to pay for the luxury of living there, and the poor, unable to finance the move out of the city to the still more expensive life of the suburbs.

Those who do move out encounter new problems. Long-established suburban families have had time to acquire most of the appurtenances for such living, but many of the newcomers make the mistake of trying to match the old-timers at one jump.

When a man moves to a higher income bracket, how can he help feeling puzzled if he finds it harder than ever to make both ends meet?

In-Cuba-Tion Period

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — The guess is that Brezhnev has flown to Cuba to tell Castro to pipe down in his references to the U.S. and to pull the plug on his love affair with China.

The trip has been billed as a friendly return visit in the wake of Castro's voyage to Moscow. But Brezhnev is not a man to fly that far to an inconsequential outpost of world Communism just to get hugged by another frustrated ballplayer. (Castro was turned down by the late Joe Cambria, a scout for the Washington Senators, when Fidel was pitching for the University of Havana.) Chuck Connors, who was driven into acting when the Brooklyn Dodgers let him go, is more than adequate as Brezhnev's official hugger.

One of the major quirks of our quirky times is that Brezhnev, en route to meet Castro, sent a friendly message from his jet to Castro's bete noire, Nixon. It read: "Flying close to the shores of the United States of America, I express the best wishes to you, Mr. President, to the government and the people of the United States. I am confident that relations between the Soviet Union and the United States will be developing further to the benefit of the peoples of our two countries, in the interests of the international security and universal peace."

Then he landed for a red carpet reception on an island which his predecessor Khrushchev had once imbedded with missiles capable of reaching three quarters of the territory of the U.S. Brezhnev embraced the frustrated righthander, but Castro didn't pick him up. Like Chuck does.

Brezhnev, of course, has to be a pretty fancy fielder to handle a mix-up like this:

—Russia is in great need of the goods, the continued good will and know-how of the U.S.

—Cuba, which depends heavily on Russia's $1,000,000 a day welfare payment, knocks the U.S.

—Russia hates China.

—China helps Cuba, modestly.

—Russia might want to call a world congress of Communist countries and throw China out of the club. It would want Cuba to vote with the majority.

—Russia wishes the U.S. and Cuba would kiss and make up, so that we would share the cost of keeping Castro in power.

—Castro spits at even the thought of such a thing.

—So do U.S. owners of hotels, condominiums and gambling casinos in Puerto Rico, whose big investments would be clobbered by the switch of American tourism to Cuba.

—Florida would like to unload its heavy population of Cuban emigres on welfare and see them free to return to Mother Cuba.

Any one who comes up with a solution to all this will win a free trip to the Ghogs for one week, and one week with the Tosks, the two largest tribal groups of Albania. Which loves China, hates Russia, and is thinking of declaring war on the U.S.

Television's golf commentators hold all records for premature announcements:

Zeke—Now let's watch Lum Lum-bago, the sweetest swinger this side of Shawnee. Watch this swing while good old Connie Compone, who beat the best of 'em, explains it.

Connie—Notice how Lum brings that clubhead back low and slow and keeps that weight on his right side. Then look at the way he reaches that club up high and parallel to the ground. Now watch that downswing, and look at the way he moves that left side out of the way for the full, beautiful follow through.

Zeke—you're right, Connie. Well, Lum's drive caught the trap 84 yards down the fairway and he's dug in a foot deep. Now let's go to Barry Bumpstead on the 16th.

Barry - Thanks, Zeke, you're the greatest. We're watching the fourth shot of Mac McCloud on the 16th. He had two unlucky whiffs before hitting that big eucalyptus. But he still has a shot at top money here in the Ernest Borgnine Classic at beautiful Mugwump Golf and Country Club. Now back to you, Zeke.

Zeke—Thank you, Barry. I'm not the greatest; you are. Here comes Lum's ball. It's one of the greatest shots ever seen in golf! Headed right for that old stick! Just a moment. The ball is going into the crowd. It hits a baby on the head and ricochets onto the green! How about that for a great shot? Now over to the 18...

A good deal of the indecision about how well the 1974 economy would perform is being removed. Earlier, all bets had been hedged because of uncertainties about the Mideast oil cutback.

No less an authority than the Conference Board, whose members and scholars include some of the hierarchy of the corporate and academic worlds, now declares flatly that there will be no oil shortfall on a national basis.

Maybe some regional problems, it concedes, mainly in New England and to a lesser degree in the middle Atlantic states, and certainly some higher prices, but no national calamity as had been feared.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Isn't In A 'Retiring' Mood

DEAR ABBY: I've been married for 28 years. I am 55, and Zeke is 57.

After Zeke and I were engaged, he told me he was buying his brother's farm. I told him if that's what he really wanted I did not want to go through with the marriage because I did not care to live on a farm. We broke our engagement. A few weeks later Zeke called and said he wasn't buying the farm and would I marry him.

To make a long story short, we were married, but I have heard nothing but "farm" since I married him.

Now, Zeke tells me he wants to buy a "nice little 12-acre farm" in the same stinking area we broke our engagement over. He says he wants to "retire" there. Abby, I never wanted to live on a farm, and I sure as heck don't want to "retire" on one.

What should I do?

CITY GIRL

DEAR GIRL: Tell Zeke you still don't want to live on a farm and don't give an inch, or you'll wind up on 12 acres.

DEAR ABBY: This is for "Agape in Colorado"—the problem the gentleman had in wondering how he could tell a lady who was wearing a pantsuit that her fly was open. We have a simple solution for that problem. When my sometimes forgetful 7-year-old son is seen in that state, we just say, "XYZ," which is a signal meaning, "Examine Your Zipper."

DOTTIE KING

DEAR DOTTIE: Thanks for an A-OK suggestion.

DEAR ABBY: It's past midnight now, and even if I went back to bed and tried to sleep, I couldn't, so I might just as well write this.

My sister has a beautiful 3-year-old son who she doesn't appreciate. Sis works Monday through Friday only to satisfy her extravagant taste. Her husband makes good money, but Sis never has enough clothes, so she works, too. Sis drops her baby off at Mom's every work day without fail. The baby is never fed, and sometimes he's not even dressed. Mom takes care of him all day until Sis picks him up at 6 p.m. (Mom even gives the baby his supper and has him in his pajamas, bathed, and ready for bed.) Sis doesn't pay Mom one cent, either.

I feel sorry for Mom. She has her own housework to do (three kids and Pop are still at home), and Mom is growing old and tired, but she would never say no to Sis.

There have been weekends when Sis leaves the baby with Mom, but Mom never complains.

Doesn't Sis realize that Mom raised her kids and now Sis should raise her own?

I love my sister and wish she would open her eyes.

NOT AS FORTUNATE

DEAR NOT: Perhaps your signature conveys more than you meant it to. Why don't you tell your sister how you feel? There is always the chance that your mom doesn't feel as burdened by the baby as you think she does.

Farm Prices Show Boost During Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farm prices, led by big gains for wheat and meat animals, jumped 9 per cent in the month ended Jan. 15 and averaged 39 per cent above a year earlier, the Agriculture Department says.

The increase pushed the department's index of prices farmers receive for raw products to 200 per cent of a 1967 base used for comparison, the department said Thursday. That was only 7 points below the record set last August.

As a group, meat animal prices went up 12 per cent during the month. They averaged 21 per cent higher than on Jan. 15, 1973. Cattle, which includes all types sold for beef, were $44.40 per 100 pounds, up $6.80 from December.

Cattle last August were a record $51.70 per hundredweight and in January last year averaged $37.10. Hogs were $40.10 per hundredweight, up $1.90 from Dec. 15. A year earlier, they were $31.

The Crop Reporting Board said the over-all index also rose because of higher prices for cotton, a record 57.2 cents per pound; corn $2.59 per bushel, exceeded only by $2.68 last August; and potatoes $4.67 per 100 pounds, up 96 cents from December.

Wheat averaged a record $5.29 per bushel at farms, up 51 cents from December. A year earlier, wheat was $2.38 per bushel.

The wheat price spiral began 18 months ago, triggered by huge sales to the Soviet Union. At that time, the farm price was $1.32 per bushel. Most of the increase has occurred in the past six months.

Last July, as farmers were harvesting a record wheat crop of 1.7 billion bushels, the farm price was $2.47 per bushel. Thus, in half a year, wheat prices have more than doubled.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Isn't In A 'Retiring' Mood

DEAR ABBY: I've been married for 28 years. I am 55, and Zeke is 57.

After Zeke and I were engaged, he told me he was buying his brother's farm. I told him if that's what he really wanted I did not want to go through with the marriage because I did not care to live on a farm. We broke our engagement. A few weeks later Zeke called and said he wasn't buying the farm and would I marry him.

To make a long story short, we were married, but I have heard nothing but "farm" since I married him.

Now, Zeke tells me he wants to buy a "nice little 12-acre farm" in the same stinking area we broke our engagement over. He says he wants to "retire" there. Abby, I never wanted to live on a farm, and I sure as heck don't want to "retire" on one.

What should I do?

CITY GIRL

DEAR GIRL: Tell Zeke you still don't want to live on a farm and don't give an inch, or you'll wind up on 12 acres.

DEAR ABBY: This is for "Agape in Colorado"—the problem the gentleman had in wondering how he could tell a lady who was wearing a pantsuit that her fly was open. We have a simple solution for that problem. When my sometimes forgetful 7-year-old son is seen at that state, we just say, "XYZ," which is a signal meaning, "Examine Your Zipper."

DOTTIE KING

DEAR DOTTIE: Thanks for an A-OK suggestion.

DEAR ABBY: It's past midnight now, and even if I went back to bed and tried to sleep, I couldn't, so I might just as well write this.

My sister has a beautiful 3-year-old son who she doesn't appreciate. Sis works Monday through Friday only to satisfy her extravagant taste. Her husband makes good money, but Sis never has enough clothes, so she works, too. Sis drops her baby off at Mom's every work day without fail. The baby is never fed, and sometimes he's not even dressed. Mom takes care of him all day until Sis picks him up at 6 p.m. (Mom even gives the baby his supper and has him in his pajamas, bathed, and ready for bed.) Sis doesn't pay Mom one cent, either.

I feel sorry for Mom. She has her own housework to do (three kids and Pop are still at home), and Mom is growing old and tired, but she would never say no to Sis.

There have been weekends when Sis leaves the baby with Mom, but Mom never complains.

Doesn't Sis realize that Mom raised her kids and now Sis should raise her own?

I love my sister and wish she would open her eyes.

NOT AS FORTUNATE

DEAR NOT: Perhaps your signature conveys more than you meant it to. Why don't you tell your sister how you feel? There is always the chance that your mom doesn't feel as burdened by the baby as you think she does.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

decision when he argued that the White House had an obligation to turn over tapes that might be evidence needed by the grand jury.

The White House rejected that argument on the grounds that material that also was withheld from the prosecution could not be demanded by the defense.

But many defense lawyers contend that if the defense could demonstrate that the material might help clear a defendant, it wouldn't matter whether or not the prosecution had it.

Farm Prices Show Boost During Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farm prices, led by big gains for wheat and meat animals, jumped 9 per cent in the month ended Jan. 15 and averaged 39 per cent above a year earlier, the Agriculture Department says.

The increase pushed the department's index of prices farmers receive for raw products to 200 per cent of a 1967 base used for comparison, the department said Thursday. That was only 7 points below the record set last August.

As a group, meat animal prices went up 12 per cent during the month. They averaged 21 per cent higher than on Jan. 15, 1973. Cattle, which includes all types sold for beef, were $44.40 per 100 pounds, up $6.80 from December.

Cattle last August were a record $51.70 per hundredweight and in January last year averaged $37.10. Hogs were $40.10 per hundredweight, up $1.90 from Dec. 15. A year earlier, they were $31.

The Crop Reporting Board said the over-all index also rose because of higher prices for cotton, a record 57.2 cents per pound; corn $2.59 per bushel, exceeded only by $2.68 last August; and potatoes $4.67 per 100 pounds, up 96 cents from December.

Wheat averaged a record $5.29 per bushel at farms, up 51 cents from December. A year earlier, wheat was $2.38 per bushel.

The wheat price spiral began 18 months ago, triggered by huge sales to the Soviet Union. At that time, the farm price was $1.32 per bushel. Most of the increase has occurred in the past six months.

Last July, as farmers were harvesting a record wheat crop of 1.7 billion bushels, the farm price was $2.47 per bushel. Thus, in half a year, wheat prices have more than doubled.

TERESA LYNN WORTHINGTON

Couple Planning February Wedding

Mrs. Pansy L. Worthington, Ashville, announces the engagement of her daughter, Teresa Lynn, to Charles Dean Arledge, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Arledge, Tarlton.

The bride-elect, also the daughter of the late Clyde Worthington, is a student at Teays Valley High School. Her fiancé, a graduate of Logan Elm High School, is employed by Lutz's Marathon service station in Tarlton. A February wedding is planned.

January Activities Of Sorority Unit

January activities of Xi Eta Epsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority began with a business meeting in the home of Norma Feldman, 1980 Chippewa Drive.

La Donna Keichner presented the program using window treatment as her topic. She traced the origin of windows from earliest homes to the present. Many samples, pictures and drawings illustrated each phase in the progress of windows both ornamental and utilitarian.

Others present for the evening were: Audrey Bell, Delores Bowers, Marjorie Koch, Rosemary Linn.

The social outing of the sorority for January was an evening at the Theater Restaurant in Columbus. Attending were: Norma Feldman, Jeanne Moore, Sharon Walters, Kathy Rhodes and Delores Bowers.

The next meeting will be Feb. 5th at the home of Rosemary Linn, Route 3.

Women's Civic Club Plans Smorgasbord

Plans for an international smorgasbord have been made by Ashville Women's Civic Club at its 7 p.m. Thursday meeting in the home of Mrs. Roger Hedges. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Paul Cromley and Miss Nelle Oesterle.

A nominating committee for officers will be elected. Members are to bring a covered-dish and their own table service.

Easter Seal Society Meeting Planned

Easter Seal Society will meet 1 p.m. Tuesday at headquarters, 216 S. Court St.

Mt. Pleasant Women To Meet Tuesday

"Prayer And Self-Denial" will be the program topic for the 7:30 p.m. Tuesday meeting of Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Women in the home of Mrs. John Moss Sr., Route 2. Hostesses will be Anna Moss and Nelle Hopkins.

Auxiliary To Meet

Ladies Auxiliary of Pickaway Twp. Fire Department will meet 7:30 p.m. Monday in the home of Mrs. Vernon Harrison, Route 1, Jefferson Addition. Mrs. Kenneth Graf is co-hostess for the evening.

Friendship Circle Meets In Tarlton Lutheran Church

St. Jacob's Lutheran Friendship Circle of Tarlton held its organizational meeting recently in the church social rooms with Mrs. Louise Mathews as hostess.

A motion was passed to retain the same officers for 1974: Ned Reichelderfer, president; Carl Strous, vice president; Anne Jones, secretary and Wilma Strous, treasurer. After a short discussion it was also decided to keep the same entertainment calendar for the coming year.

After considering several possibilities, the class decided to eat out together at "The Red Lobster Restaurant" in Columbus in February.

Luncheon was served by the hostess to the following members and their families: Wilbur and Mary Swain, Franklin and Wilma Strous, Carl and Thelma Strous, Ned and Jean Reichelderfer, and Nelson and Anne Jones.

Guild Discusses Annual Gift To Berger Hospital

Arts and crafts were demonstrated during the recent meeting of Berger Hospital Guild 41 in the home of Mrs. Ralph Hannahs, 115 Parkview Ave. Mrs. James Shaw served as co-hostess.

Mrs. Linden Gibson, president, read a letter from John Reid, hospital administrator, thanking members for decorating the Christmas tree again this year at the hospital.

A discussion was held by the 13 members present concerning the guild's annual gift to the hospital which will be determined at the February meeting.

The next regular meeting will be 7:30 p.m., Feb. 25th, in the home of Mrs. James McConnell, 108 Rosewood Ave.

State Energy Bill Defended

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gilligan Administration spokesmen have defended an emergency measure that permits the state to move ahead to combat the energy crisis.

Rep. Robert E. Levitt, R-70 Canton, challenged the sweeping legislation Wednesday night at the first hearing on a bill to create a state emergency energy board, a state energy office, and a state energy administrator.

Chairman Edmund J. Turk of the Public Utilities Commission and Ira Whitman, director of the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency disputed Levitt's assertion that there is no rush for state action since federal energy legislation has not yet taken shape. The state should go ahead and set up the machinery "if and when the state needs to use it," Turk said.

Levitt said he had heard no testimony to support the need for immediately-effective emergency legislation and that he would like to hear proof that a crisis exists "from just one witness."

The exchange took place before the House Select Committee on Energy, a new panel of six Democrats and three Republicans established to hear all energy proposals coming before the legislature this year.

Speaker Pro Tem Vernal G. Riffe Jr. D-89 New Boston, admonished Levitt at several points for "repeating the same questions, over and over" and accused the Canton Legislator of trying to inject "partisan politics" into the hearing. "I don't intend to stand for it," Riffe said at one point.

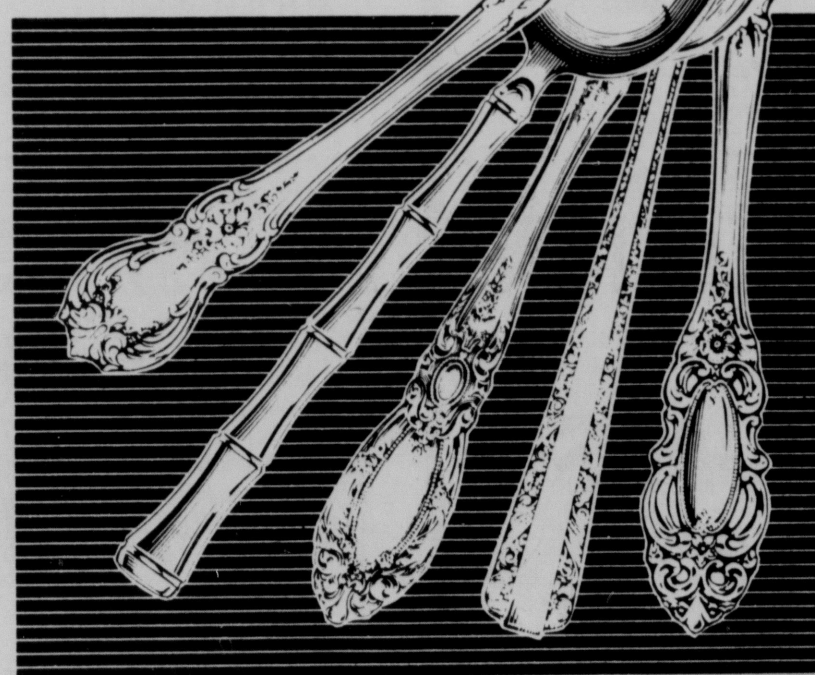

Levitt accused Riffe of "interfering" with his questioning and of "trying to muzzle your own witnesses." Several times, the meeting nearly bogged down into a shouting match between the two lawmakers.

Friendship Circle Meets In Tarlton Lutheran Church

St. Jacob's Lutheran Friendship Circle of Tarlton held its organizational meeting recently in the church social rooms with Mrs. Louise Mathews as hostess.

A motion was passed to retain the same officers for 1974: Ned Reichelderfer, president; Carl Strous, vice president; Anne Jones, secretary and Wilma Strous, treasurer. After a short discussion it was also decided to keep the same entertainment calendar for the coming year.

After considering several possibilities, the class decided to eat out together at "The Red Lobster Restaurant" in Columbus in February.

Luncheon was served by the hostess to the following members and their families: Wilbur and Mary Swain, Franklin and Wilma Strous, Carl and Thelma Strous, Ned and Jean Reichelderfer, and Nelson and Anne Jones.

Guild Discusses Annual Gift To Berger Hospital

Arts and crafts were demonstrated during the recent meeting of Berger Hospital Guild 41 in the home of Mrs. Ralph Hannahs, 115 Parkview Ave. Mrs. James Shaw served as co-hostess.

Mrs. Linden Gibson, president, read a letter from John Reid, hospital administrator, thanking members for decorating the Christmas tree again this year at the hospital.

A discussion was held by the 13 members present concerning the guild's annual gift to the hospital which will be determined at the February meeting.

The next regular meeting will be 7:30 p.m., Feb. 25th, in the home of Mrs. James McConnell, 108 Rosewood Ave.

State Energy Bill Defended

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gilligan Administration spokesmen have defended an emergency measure that permits the state to move ahead to combat the energy crisis.

Rep. Robert E. Levitt, R-70 Canton, challenged the sweeping legislation Wednesday night at the first hearing on a bill to create a state emergency energy board, a state energy office, and a state energy administrator.

Chairman Edmund J. Turk of the Public Utilities Commission and Ira Whitman, director of the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency disputed Levitt's assertion that there is no rush for state action since federal energy legislation has not yet taken shape. The state should go ahead and set up the machinery "if and when the state needs to use it," Turk said.

Levitt said he had heard no testimony to support the need for immediately-effective emergency legislation and that he would like to hear proof that a crisis exists "from just one witness."

The exchange took place before the House Select Committee on Energy, a new panel of six Democrats and three Republicans established to hear all energy proposals coming before the legislature this year.

Speaker Pro Tem Vernal G. Riffe Jr. D-89 New Boston, admonished Levitt at several points for "repeating the same questions, over and over" and accused the Canton legislator of trying to inject "partisan politics" into the hearing. "I don't intend to stand for it," Riffe said at one point.

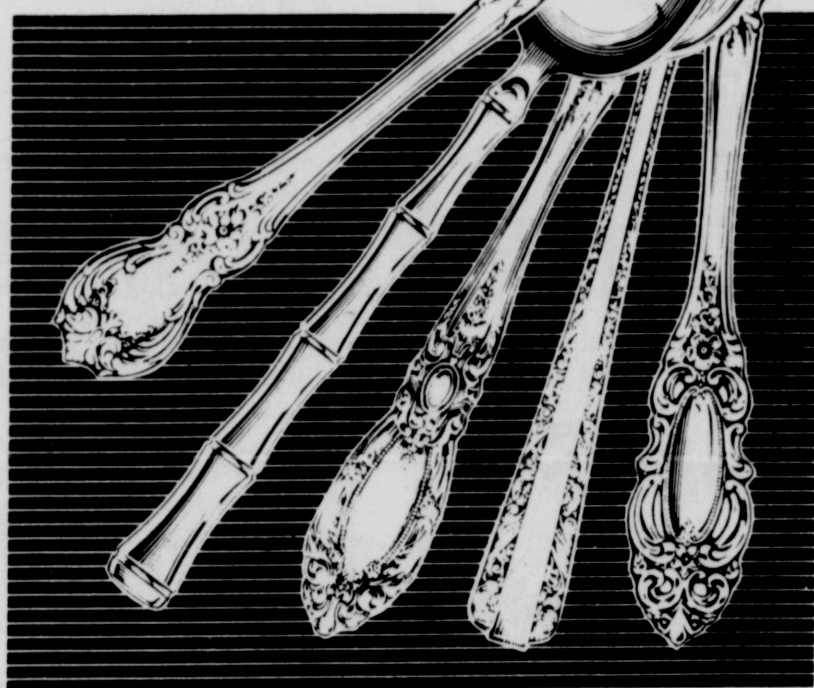

Levitt accused Riffe of "interfering" with his questioning and of "trying to muzzle your own witnesses." Several times, the meeting nearly bogged down into a shouting match between the two lawmakers.

Beauty Abounds

By JIM BISHOP

ABOARD M V ANGELINA LAURO — Crumple a desk blotter, drop it, and you have the island of Martinique. It is part of the necklace of Antilles encircling the throat of the Caribbean. The mountains rise steep and jungle green from the sea with a smudge of smoke coming from Mount Pelee.

It is, to my way of thinking, a special place. Martinique is only 54 miles long but it packs more beauty, history and terror than many nations. Dark crayon roads thread the passes, but the jungle growth of flaming poinsettia, the powder puffs called pomme d' amour, the timid, shuddering orchids and the orange flamboyants would choke the highways in a year if they were not cut back.

A 15-foot fan, called Traveler's palm, grows alone. Pierced, it yields cool sweet water. Deep in the rain forest, bananas hang green. Breadfruit is there for the taking.

The Creole women, the product of French colonization and black slaves, are as attractive as the flowers. Far down the long slopes, squatters live in the cleanest shacks.

It is almost 72 years since Pelee warned the people with two days of flying rocks and ruddy flame painting the night clouds. The people of St. Pierre saw it, crossed themselves, and went about their work in the fields and the sugar refinery.

Pelee blew out one side of its volcanic face in a single blast. Two hundred miles east, the crew of a ship thought it was a clap of thunder in an empty blue sky.

Boiling lava slid in slow motion toward St. Pierre and the sea. Prisoners in the local jail begged for mercy. St. Pierre was shoved, building by flaming building, into the sea. Thirty thousand people were killed. One prisoner survived.

For a year, Pelee's ashes dimmed the sun in other continents. Today, it is a 4,600-foot cone with a broken face. Now and then, men shade their eyes to stare at the lazy drift of smoke. "It sleeps."

Further south, Fort-de-France stands at the foot of the mountains, a toy town with bright roofs, taxicabs, tourists restaurants and, in the center of a park, a pale cold statue of Josephine.

The child who was to become the wife of Napoleon was born across the harbor in Trois Ilets, which was a village in 1763 and is a village now. The church bells which tolled when she was christened Marie Rose Josephine Tascher de la Pagerie, echo through the hills today.

Her nickname was not Josephine; it was Yvette. Her father had a slave plantation which grew cocoa and coffee. In a day when marriages were seldom made in heaven, but rather in the heads of greedy parents, Yvette was sent to Paris, at age 16, to marry a rich rake named Alexandre de Beauharnais.

She had two children, Eugene and Hortense, and then her husband lost his head — literally — and Napoleon, who fancied himself as a field marshal of boudoirs, made her his empress. One speculates that he lost a major engagement because he became famous for murmuring: "Not tonight, Josephine."

The women of Martinique are so exceptionally beautiful that one, Aimee Dubud de Rivery, was captured by Barbary pirates and presented to the Grand Sultan of Istanbul. Aimee became the mother of the emperor of the Turks, Mahmoud II. It seems incredible, but Madame de Maintenon, who also lived on Martinique, became the second wife of King Louis XIV.

My spouse thought that I had seen enough of the ochre-skinned ladies with their erect carriage, and insisted that we take a taxicab into the mountains. The driver said "$7"; Kelly said "$6." He agreed reluctantly. His normal fee is $4.

High above the harbor of Fort-de-France we knelt in the church of the Sacre Coeur of Martinique, a quiet

RGC Professors To Visit Area High Schools

Six Rio Grande College professors will visit the Circleville and Westfall areas during this year. This is a free service extended to more than 30 high schools throughout the state provided by the college.

Speaking to high school classes in their area of specialization, these faculty members discuss everything from speech and history to physics and nutrition. The program entitled Faculty Voices gives high school students the opportunity to know the professors better and at the same time, it helps the high school instructor add to his instruction.

place of cool whitewashed walls and claret-colored vigil lights. Outside, the flowers crept inward on a scented breeze, worshipers in their own right.

Far below, the big blue ship sat at anchor in the roadstead, a painted toy in an old bathtub. The driver took us downhill, prattling in a patois of French and English about the estates of the rich, with their high fences and flowerless lawns.

We returned to the ship. I assured Kelly that I had hardly noticed the girls, except as hybrids of the conqueror and the conquered. And that, my friend, is a purely scientific interest. O.K. Impurely . . .

Letters We Luv

My new "Automatic Checkbook" is wonderful! It keeps my balance private, never loses an entry, reduces errors, protects my account, and fits in my pocket as purse. And when I write a check, it AUTOMATICALLY makes a copy for my records!

Next time YOU'RE in the neighborhood, drop by and ask for a demonstration of the Automatic Checkbook. Another service from the First National Bank, the bank that cares about your account.

Romance, history and mystery combine to make a magnificent novel which captures the full flavor of Elizabeth I's England. "Lion Triumphant" is by Philippa Carr who wrote the popular gothic history, "Miracle at St. Bruno's". Philippa Carr, whose real name is Eleanor Hibbert, also writes historical novels under the name, Jean Plaidy and gothic novels under the name, Victoria Holt.

"Crown of Aloes" is by another popular writer of historical novels, Norah Lofts. This latest work is a biographical novel of Isabella, Queen of Spain. Isabella recounts the story of her 53 years against a background of 15th Century European life, the Inquisition, and her dealings with Columbus.

"Kolchak's Gold" by Brian Garfield is a historical novel of love revolving around the gold from the Imperial Russian Treasury of the late Czar Nicholas.

"Jane" by Dee Wells is the novel of a modern woman involved with three lovers.

For mystery fans, J. F. Burke has written "Location Shots," a fast-paced detective story of New York and its people. Action centers around an ex-cop living on the upper west side.

Gems are the high stakes in the mystery-suspense thriller "The Emerald Trap" by Leonard St. Clair.

Marya Mannes presents a forceful and humanistic approach to euthanasia in "Last Rights." The author believes that every human should have the right to choose his manner of dying.

For car tinkers and carburetor adjusters, some new Chilton titles will prove popular and helpful. These Chilton volumes are "Truck Repair manual: Light and Medium Trucks;" "Auto Repair Manual 1974"; "Power Accessories and Wiring Diagram Manual;" "Battery Chargers and Testers;" "Auto Troubleshooting Guide;" and repair and maintenance guides for truck campers, travel trailers, and camper trailers.

If the current economic crisis concerns you, you might welcome one of the following guides. "How to Start Your Own Business" gives complete information from suggested sites to financing for small business ventures like beauty shops, catering, pet stores, photographic studios, etc. "Raising Small Animals for Fun and Profit" by Paul Villiard might suggest a hobby or a supplementary source of income. "Non-Traditional Careers for Women" By Sarah Splaver discusses 500 careers for women in such fields as law, medicine, science, math, engineering, etc. "Personal Finance: Principles and Case Problems" offers sound financial advice for managing your personal affairs.

For cutting down food costs, a home garden provides help. "The Calendar of Organic Gardening" gives suggestions for day by day garden planning in seven different climate zones. You will need "Stocking Up: How to Preserve the Foods You Grow, Naturally" if your planning is a success. If your success produces too many mouth-watering, high calorie delectables, we suggest Jean Nideth's "Weight Watcher's Program Cookbook".

Watters, Smith Are Wrestling Captains

BY CINDY SIMS

The 1973-74 varsity wrestling captains are Steve Watters and Joe Smith. These two guys provide great leadership for the wrestling squad, according to Coach Brent Bell.

Steve Watters lives at 818 S. Court St. with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dixie Watters. Steve, a senior, has been on the varsity squad for three years. He has suffered several injuries this year. However, his overall record consists of 35 wins, 11 losses, and 1 tie. "This shows Steve's ability in wrestling", said Coach Bell.

Besides wrestling, Steve is active in cross-country and track. Steve won the most valuable player award for cross-country at the fall sports banquet. He is also president of Stooze Club.

In his spare time, Steve said he enjoys hitting people with basketballs, driving fast, being with girls, and yelling at "Pearhead" and Doug during basketball games.

"We are defending league champs. We'll defend our title well by winning the league again this year. With a lot of work we should see some guys in the state meet," commented Steve on the rest of the season.

Joe Smith resides with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith at 265 Edwards Road. Joe, also a senior, has started on the varsity squad for three years. So far this year, Joe has been doing a great job for the Tigers, according to Coach Bell. His record proves this with 10 wins, 3 losses, and 2 ties.

"We have beaten Wilmington, supposedly the toughest team in the league besides us. All we have to do now is win on Feb. 16," stated Joe about the league meet.

Joe finds time for girls, eating and watching television. He is active at school as wingback on the varsity football team and as supreme court justice of the Stooze Club.

Learning Is Continuous Process

MRS. WANDA DUKE

By JOHN DOWLER

"I enjoy teaching because no two days are alike. Learning is a continuous process and I believe one should enjoy life as he learns." This is the teaching philosophy of Mrs. Wanda Duke, fifth grade teacher at Atwater Elementary School.

Mrs. Duke resides on Dunkel Road with her husband the Rev. Milton Duke and their two children, Suzanne, 6, and Aaron, 2. The Rev. Duke is pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Duke graduated from Texas Wesleyan College. She came from Shreveport, La., where she taught eighth grade at Ridgewood Junior High.

Mrs. Duke said, "I hope to install enthusiasm and curiosity, as well as knowledge. True wisdom is only achieved through one's relationship with God, however."

The fifth grade teacher commented on the town, "I enjoy Circleville. We have always lived in large cities, such as Fort Worth and Shreveport; therefore, it is very refreshing to live in a smaller town. We believe it is an ideal place to rear our children."

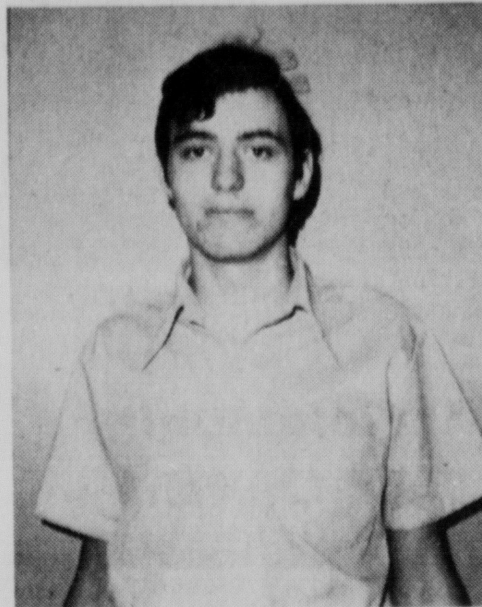

Mrs. Duke is a member of the Baptist Women's club and the Faith Sunday School class.

Some of her hobbies are camping, cooking, sewing, and watching "The Waltons" on television.

New Sophomore Finds CHS Challenging and Rewarding

By RICH BUMGARNER

"Circleville High School has been a challenging and rewarding experience." This is how sophomore Alan Speakman described his first semester at CHS.

ALAN SPEAKMAN

Alan moved to Circleville from Columbus with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Luther Speakman and his step-sister, Rori Manbeavers. The family resides at Rt. 1.

Before coming to CHS, Alan attended Buckeye Junior High School in Columbus, where he participated in a computer club.

Alan has found it easy to settle down in Circleville, because he lived here before. During elementary school, Alan made many friends at Atwater, and he said he has found these friendships most helpful in resettling here in Circleville.

Among many of Alan's interests are sports, girls, and good books.

Looking Back At Red, Black

By RICK BUMGARNER
1937

The senior class play was "Wings of the Morning."

The CHS band was under the direction of C. F. Zaenglein.

The senior class motto was "Row, Don't Drift."

Don Henry was leader of the Student Social Council.

Circleville had a debate club, which was coached by Mr. Jewett.

The senior class flower was the American Beauty Rose.

There were nine students named in "Who's Who."

Ohio Northern U Holds Reception

By SANDY ANGLES

Ohio Northern University will hold a reception at the Ramada Inn North in Columbus next Thursday to familiarize any interested students, parents, and counselors with the university.

Members of the admissions staff, as well as faculty, students, and Central Ohio alumni will be available to talk to students and answer questions. Slides of the campus will be shown, and refreshments will be served.

Due to the current fuel shortage, the university administrators feel the students and parents may be reluctant to visit college campuses.

The Ramada Inn North is located just off I-71 on State Route 161.

Alan has found many good things about CHS. He particularly likes all of the friends he has made, and he says that all of the kids are friendly.

Even though Alan is only a sophomore, he has already chosen a profession. After finishing school, he wants to become a welder.

DECA Student Employed At Buckeye Mart

CINDY CORNE

By CONNIE FORREST

This week's DECA student is Cindy Corne. Cindy resides at 114 Rosewood Ave. with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Corne. Cindy has one sister Barbara (Morrison), 21 and two brothers-James, 24, and Marion, 23.

Cindy is employed at Buckeye Mart as a cashier. She says she does anything that needs doing. Cindy works hard at her job, averaging anywhere from 35-37 1/2 hours per week.

Asked what her reaction to the public is, Cindy replied, "Some people I like instantly; a few I can't stand."

Cindy agrees with the majority of the DECA students, saying it is easier to get a job if a student is in DECA, because the coordinators know the job. openings and DECA students are able to be the first ones there.

Some of Cindy's likes include being a senior, smiles, good friends, helping people, one very nice guy and Miss Bower's third period English class. Homework, Christmas rush at Buckeye Mart, children with dirty faces, arguing and young people who smoke are some of her dislikes.

After graduation Cindy plans to work at Buckeye Mart through the summer and attend Ohio University in the fall to study English literature or speech and hearing therapy.

Cindy's goals after graduation are "to study, to live, to learn, to be independent and, last but not least, to be happy."

Energy Crisis Prompts Students To Speak Out

By SHERRI SMITH

Many people are debating whether or not there is actually an energy crisis. With the new time change, the Circleville students are going to school in total darkness.

Here are some opinions from CHS students concerning the crisis.

Do you believe there is actually an energy crisis? Does the new time change conserve energy?

Kristi Rahe - "Yes, I believe there is an energy crisis. This new time change doesn't conserve energy, because I use more lights in the morning, and people are taking their kids to school so they don't have to walk in the dark."

Susan Estes thinks there is an energy crisis, and she says, "This new time change makes it almost impossible for me to get up in the morning."

Jim Cordle says he doesn't know whether or not there's an energy crisis, and he doesn't like the time change.

Brian Bass - "This new time doesn't conserve energy, because I have to turn on more lights in the morning."

Kim Allison - "I don't believe there's a crisis, and it's stupid to change the time because we use more energy than before."

Rick Hartinger - "I believe there is a crisis, but with this time change, the energy we conserve at night is used up in the morning."

Terry Alloway - "No, there's not a crisis. I hate this new time change, because I like to sleep in, and when I wake up and it's dark, I want to go back to sleep."

"Yes, there's a crisis, said Jeff Spires. This time change doesn't conserve energy because the lights have to be turned on to light the streets for children to walk to school."

Mike Fath - "I like the new time change because it stays light at night, but I believe there is a crisis."

Poet Speaks To English Classes

By TAMMY MILLER

Poet Hollis Summers, a member of the English staff at Ohio University, will speak to the English classes at CHS next Thursday morning.

Summers is the author of four novels, "City Limit," "Brighten the Corner," "The Weather of February," and "The Garden." Also to his credit is a book of short stories entitled "How They Chose the Dead and Other Stories."

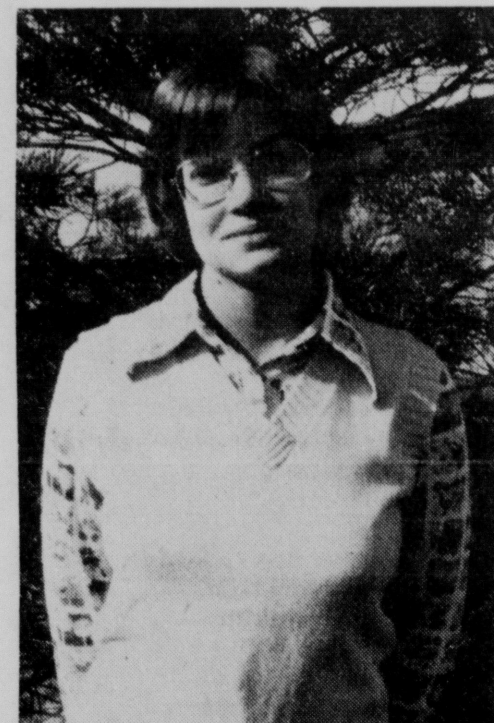

His poetry has been combined into several volumes including "The Walks Near Athens," "Someone Else," "The Peddler and Other Domestic Matters," and "Start From Home." Several of his poems have also been published in such magazines as "Saturday Review" and "Harper's."

The Poets in the Schools Program is sponsored by the Ohio Arts Council, aided by a grant from the National Endorsement for the Arts.

"The purpose of the program is to expose students to poets and poetry," stated Walter Sale, advisor of English Merit Society, which is sponsoring the program at CHS.

The longest distance for a champagne cork to fly from a bottle is 34 feet, recorded at the Mardi Gras in New Orleans in 1962.

Judy Bobo Wins Award

JUDY BOBO

By MARGARET MERRILL

Judy Bobo has been named Circleville High School's 1973-74 Betty Crocker Family Leader of Tomorrow. Judy won the honor by competing with other seniors in the written knowledge and attitude examination on Dec. 4. She is now eligible for state and national honors, and she will receive a specially designed award from General Mills, Inc., sponsor of the annual education scholarship program.

Judy resides at 575 Ridgewood Drive with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Bobo, her sister Barb, and her dog Gino.

If Judy becomes a state winner she will receive a $1,500 scholarship and "The Annals of America," a 20-volume reference work for her school. She will also compete for national honors. The second place winner receives a $500 grant.

State winners, going on to the nationals, will travel to Washington D.C. and Minneapolis, during which the All-American Family Leader of Tomorrow is announced. The winner will receive a $5,000 scholarship and second, third, and fourth places receive $4,000, $3,000, and $2,000, respectively.

This year 703,074 students from 14,463 schools were enrolled in the Betty Crocker Search, which for the second year included senior boys enrolled in home economics. Since the program began in 1954-55, approximately 9 million students have participated and scholarship awards have totaled more than $2 million.

"I feel honored to be able to represent my school," was Judy's reaction to becoming the CHS Betty Crocker Award winner.

Watters, Smith Are Wrestling Captains

BY CINDY SIMS

The 1973-74 varsity wrestling captains are Steve Watters and Joe Smith. These two guys provide great leadership for the wrestling squad, according to Coach Brent Bell.

Steve Watters lives at 818 S. Court St. with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dixie Watters. Steve, a senior, has been on the varsity squad for three years. He has suffered several injuries this year. However, his overall record consists of 35 wins, 11 losses, and 1 tie. "This shows Steve's ability in wrestling", said Coach Bell.

Besides wrestling, Steve is active in cross-country and track. Steve won the most valuable player award for cross-country at the fall sports banquet. He is also president of Stooze Club.

In his spare time, Steve said he enjoys hitting people with basketballs, driving fast, being with girls, and yelling at "Pearhead" and Doug during basketball games.

"We are defending league champs. We'll defend our title well by winning the league again this year. With a lot of work we should see some guys in the state meet," commented Steve on the rest of the season.

Joe Smith resides with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith at 265 Edwards Road. Joe, also a senior, has started on the varsity squad for three years. So far this year, Joe has been doing a great job for the Tigers, according to Coach Bell. His record proves this with 10 wins, 3 losses, and 2 ties.

"We have beaten Wilmington, supposedly the toughest team in the league besides us. All we have to do now is win on Feb. 16," stated Joe about the league meet.

Joe finds time for his girls, eating and watching television. He is active at school as wingback on the varsity football team and as supreme court justice of the Stooze Club.

Learning Is Continuous Process

MRS. WANDA DUKE

By JOHN DOWLER

"I enjoy teaching because no two days are alike. Learning is a continuous process and I believe one should enjoy life as he learns." This is the teaching philosophy of Mrs. Wanda Duke, fifth grade teacher at Atwater Elementary School.

Mrs. Duke resides on Dunkel Road with her husband the Rev. Milton Duke and their two children, Suzanne, 6, and Aaron, 2. The Rev. Duke is pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Duke graduated from Texas Wesleyan College. She came from Shreveport, La., where she taught eighth grade at Ridgewood Junior High.

Mrs. Duke said, "I hope to install enthusiasm and curiosity, as well as knowledge. True wisdom is only achieved through one's relationship with God, however."

The fifth grade teacher commented on the town, "I enjoy Circleville. We have always lived in large cities, such as Fort Worth and Shreveport; therefore, it is very refreshing to live in a smaller town. We believe it is an ideal place to rear our children."

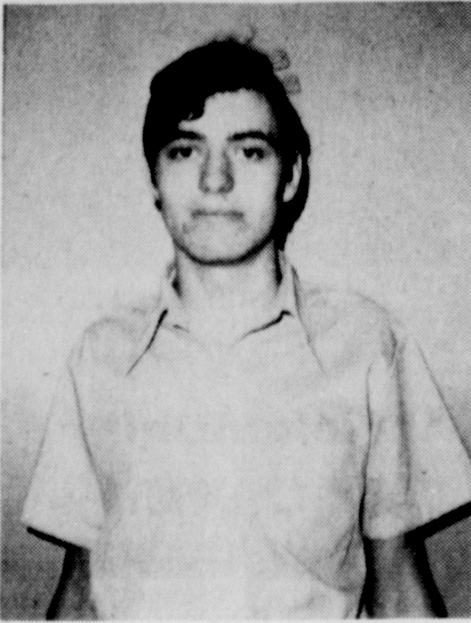

Mrs. Duke is a member of the Baptist Women's club and the Faith Sunday School class.

Some of her hobbies are camping, cooking, sewing, and watching "The Waltons" on television.

New Sophomore Finds CHS Challenging and Rewarding

By RICH BUMGARNER

"Circleville High School has been a challenging and rewarding experience." This is how sophomore Alan Speakman described his first semester at CHS.

ALAN SPEAKMAN

Alan moved to Circleville from Columbus with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Luther Speakman and his step-sister, Rori Manbeavers. The family resides at Rt. 1.

Before coming to CHS, Alan attended Buckeye Junior High School in Columbus, where he participated in a computer club.

Alan has found it easy to settle down in Circleville, because he lived here before. During elementary school, Alan made many friends at Atwater, and he said he has found these friendships most helpful in resettling here in Circleville.

Among many of Alan's interests are sports, girls, and good books.

Ohio Northern U Holds Reception

By SANDY ANGLES

Ohio Northern University will hold a reception at the Ramada Inn North in Columbus next Thursday to familiarize any interested students, parents, and counselors with the university.

Members of the admissions staff, as well as faculty, students, and Central Ohio alumni will be available to talk to students and answer questions. Slides of the campus will be shown, and refreshments will be served.

Due to the current fuel shortage, the university administrators feel the students and parents may be reluctant to visit college campuses.

The Ramada Inn North is located just off I-71 on State Route 161.

Ohio Vote On ERA Seen Crucial

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A former president of the National Organization for Women said Thursday that passage of the Equal Rights Amendment in Ohio this year could be the spark needed to make the measure a law.

Aileen Hernandez, who is now an urban affairs consultant in San Francisco, said if Ohio becomes the 33rd state to ratify the ERA, it could lead other states to do the same.

"There are some states who didn't pass it last year mostly because of opposition from labor," she told a news conference. "But since the endorsement by the AFL-CIO, I think there's a strong chance that it will be ratified nationally this year."

Ms. Hernandez said if the amendment is ratified this year it will be due mostly to the "Johnny-come-lately support of labor."

An Ohio Senate committee killed consideration of the amendment last year citing arguments by labor leaders that the ERA would nullify protective labor legislation for women.

This year, however, the national AFL-CIO endorsed the measure, and last week the same Senate committee approved the amendment for Senate passage.

The Senate is expected to vote on the measure within the next few weeks.

Driver Got Run-Around On Cheating

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Truck driver David Darrah of Canton said he got the "big run around" when he tried to report a fuel flim-flam to two federal agencies and one state department.

The 36-year-old Darrah said it took six months and the help of the Ohio attorney general to get any action.

"I just hate to see big companies cheat the public," he said. "And I wanted to see if anything would happen."

Atty. Gen. Bill Brown this week obtained a temporary restraining order in a Cleveland court to stop nine gasoline stations in northeastern Ohio, Unishops, Inc., of Cleveland; Falcon Oil Corp. of Lyndhurst and D & F Associates, Inc., of St. Louis, Mo. from diluting the gasoline.

Darrah, a driver for the Molder Carrier Corp., said he began his campaign last July when he delivered a custom order of diluted gasoline to a Clarkins Discount Gasoline Station in Youngstown.

"I was one of the first to know they were cheating," he said. "It made me mad."

He said his employer ordered him to fill his tanks with a 50-50 mixture of regular and premium gasoline and deliver it to Clarkins stations in the area. He said the stations then advertised the gasoline with a 100 octane rating and sold it as premium.

The attorney general said it found

Sohio Raises Gasoline Prices

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Gasoline prices took another jump today at Standard Oil Co. (Ohio) stations as the company continued to make price adjustments on the month-to-month pattern authorized by the Cost of Living Council.

Sohio said it was boosting prices 5.4 cents a gallon at company operated stations and is raising wholesale prices to dealers by the same amount.

Similar increases were ordered by Boron Oil Co. and BP Oil Corp. which are Sohio subsidiaries operating in nearby states.

the octane rating to be no higher than 94.5.

Darrah said he was frustrated when he tried to reveal the scheme to the Internal Revenue Service, Federal Trade Commission and the Ohio Consumer Protection Agency.

"You really get a run around when you talk with them," he said.

He said the Canton IRS told him to check with the Youngstown office and that office told him to call the Cleveland IRS. "I called them several times, and they said they were interested, but never did anything," he said.

Darrah said the Federal Trade Commission in Cleveland received a written report from him, but then lost it. "Anyway, they said it would take 18 months before they could investigate it," he added.

The state Consumer Protection Agency tested the gasoline and told him they didn't find anything improper. "But I don't think their testing was right," he said.

"I got a better reception when I talked to the attorney general's office," Darrah said.

Elza Hopkins, president of Clarkins Department Stores, said D&F Associates has operated the company stations in Cleveland, Akron, Kent, Elyria, Canton and Youngstown "successfully for many years."

He said D&F forgot to remove the old octane rating stickers showing 100 plus when the government changed guidelines two months ago.

Energy Pinch Top Worry Of Nation

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Americans now are more troubled by the energy crisis than by inflation, according to the latest Gallup poll.

The Gallup organization reported Thursday that in its most recent nationwide survey it found 46 per cent of the more than 1,500 persons interviewed were most upset about the energy crisis. Twenty-six per cent said inflation is still the nation's major problem.

Inflation had been the dominant concern of Americans in every Gallup survey since late January 1973, when the Vietnam peace settlement was reached, he said.

In September 1973, Gallup found 70 per cent worried most about inflation. That was the highest proportion of people showing concern about the same thing in the 38-year history of the poll.

"Dissatisfaction with government" and "corruption in government" were named most often after the energy crisis and inflation in the latest poll.

Thirty-nine per cent said the Democrats were best able to deal with the country's most pressing problems. Only 15 per cent expressed confidence in the Republicans. Forty-six per cent were uncommitted.

The Gallup organization said asking voters to single out the top problem and then asking which party can better solve it has proved a reliable indicator of strength in congressional elections, such as those scheduled this November.

Liquor License Suspended In Fatal Crash

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—The operators of a delicatessen who allegedly sold beer to two teen-agers who were later involved in an auto accident that killed five, have had their liquor license suspended for 70 days.

Joseph and Ruth Nerlinger, operators of the Westwood Delicatessen and Wine Shoppe, had their license suspended, according to Jerry Feiertag, agent in charge of the Cincinnati District of the Ohio Department of Liquor Control. The suspension begins Feb. 28.

The Nerlingers have also been named in a $150,000 suit filed by the parents of one of the victims of the 1972 crash.

Two youths testified they bought beer at the store before the accident.

Ohio Vote On ERA Seen Crucial

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A former president of the National Organization for Women said Thursday that passage of the Equal Rights Amendment in Ohio this year could be the spark needed to make the measure a law.

Aileen Hernandez, who is now an urban affairs consultant in San Francisco, said if Ohio becomes the 33rd state to ratify the ERA, it could lead other states to do the same.

"There are some states who didn't pass it last year mostly because of opposition from labor," she told a news conference. "But since the endorsement by the AFL-CIO, I think there's a strong chance that it will be ratified nationally this year."

Ms. Hernandez said if the amendment is ratified this year it will be due mostly to the "Johnny-come-lately support of labor."

An Ohio Senate committee killed consideration of the amendment last year citing arguments by labor leaders that the ERA would nullify protective labor legislation for women.

This year, however, the national AFL-CIO endorsed the measure, and last week the same Senate committee approved the amendment for Senate passage.

The Senate is expected to vote on the measure within the next few weeks.

Driver Got Run-Around On Cheating

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Truck driver David Darrah of Canton said he got the "big run around" when he tried to report a fuel flim-flam to two federal agencies and one state department.

The 36-year-old Darrah said it took six months and the help of the Ohio attorney general to get any action.

"I just hate to see big companies cheat the public," he said. "And I wanted to see if anything would happen."

Atty. Gen. Bill Brown this week obtained a temporary restraining order in a Cleveland court to stop nine gasoline stations in northeastern Ohio, Unishops, Inc., of Cleveland; Falcon Oil Corp. of Lyndhurst and D & F Associates, Inc., of St. Louis, Mo. from diluting the gasoline.

Darrah, a driver for the Molder Carrier Corp., said he began his campaign last July when he delivered a custom order of diluted gasoline to a Clarkins Discount Gasoline Station in Youngstown.

"I was one of the first to know they were cheating," he said. "It made me mad."

He said his employer ordered him to fill his tanks with a 50-50 mixture of regular and premium gasoline and deliver it to Clarkins stations in the area. He said the stations then advertised the gasoline with a 100 octane rating and sold it as premium.

The attorney general said it found the octane rating to be no higher than 94.5.

Darrah said he was frustrated when he tried to reveal the scheme to the Internal Revenue Service, Federal Trade Commission and the Ohio Consumer Protection Agency.

"You really get a run around when you talk with them," he said.

He said the Canton IRS told him to check with the Youngstown office and that office told him to call the Cleveland IRS. "I called them several times, and they said they were interested, but never did anything," he said.

Darrah said the Federal Trade Commission in Cleveland received a written report from him, but then lost it. "Anyway, they said it would take 18 months before they could investigate it," he added.

The state Consumer Protection Agency tested the gasoline and told him they didn't find anything improper. "But I don't think their testing was right," he said.

"I got a better reception when I talked to the attorney general's office," Darrah said.

Elza Hopkins, president of Clarkins Department Stores, said D&F Associates has operated the company stations in Cleveland, Akron, Kent, Elyria, Canton and Youngstown "successfully for many years."

He said D&F forgot to remove the old octane rating stickers showing 100 plus when the government changed guidelines two months ago.

Sohio Raises Gasoline Prices

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Gasoline prices took another jump today at Standard Oil Co. (Ohio) stations as the company continued to make price adjustments on the month-to-month pattern authorized by the Cost of Living Council.

Sohio said it was boosting prices 5.4 cents a gallon at company operated stations and is raising wholesale prices to dealers by the same amount.

Similar increases were ordered by Boron Oil Co. and BP Oil Corp. which are Sohio subsidiaries operating in nearby states.

12 The Circleville Herald, Friday February 1, 1974

Willie's Dillies

By BILL McGAFFNEY
Herald Sports Editor

It just doesn't seem possible but a check of the calendar reveals that we are coming down to the last couple of weeks of the regular basketball season.

The old saying that "time flies" certainly holds true but with the energy crisis hanging around at least it could slow down a little bit and let the rest of us catch up.

Soon it will be time for the high school cagers to hit the tournament trail and we must admit we are looking forward to the action and excitement that goes with it. In our book there isn't any sport event that sets the adrenalin flowing more than a tight tournament tilt set to the music of a roaring bunch of faithful followers.

Sites have been set for the Central District sectional tournaments.

Circleville, Teays Valley and Logan Elm will be in the AA sectionals at Grove City High School. Dates will be Feb. 22, 23 and March 1, 2. The rest of the field at Grove City includes: Dublin, Bexley, Hamilton Twp., Mifflin and Bishop Hartley. The upper and lower bracket winners will advance to the District 1 tournament at the Columbus Fairgrounds Coliseum, March 4, 5, 7.

Westfall will compete in the Central District A sectional tournament at Groveport High School, Feb. 22, 23 and March 1, 2. Other teams at Groveport will be: Milford Center, Jonathan Alder, Licking Heights, New Albany, St. Charles and Wehrle. Upper and lower bracket winners will compete in the District tournament at the Fairground Coliseum, March 6, 7, 9.

Amanda-Clearcreek will be in the Central District A sectional at Lancaster High School and Zane Trace will compete in the Southeastern District A sectional at Chillicothe High School.

Our "fearless" forecast—Tigers will take two . . . Vikings wrap up Metro crown . . . Braves will take the Liberty out of Union . . . Mustangs to ride roughshod through Paint Valley.

Until next time, have a nice day-be a good sport.

Toledo Befuddles MAC Cage Experts

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Toledo, winning with togetherness and defense, continues to befuddle Mid-American Conference basketball experts.

Picked for last place in a preseason poll, the Rockets own a share of the lead with Ohio University and Bowling Green at the halfway point.

"I don't think I've ever had a team play as well together as this one," said Bob Nichols, in his ninth season as the Toledo coach.

"We've been awfully consistent on defense, always good and sometimes great," Nichols added.

Pat Haley, whose Bowling Green team entertains Toledo Saturday night, agrees.

"They're the best defensive team in the league," Haley said of the Rockets. "They play together better than anybody else, too. Toledo is the best team we've played this year."

Toledo, Bowling Green and Ohio all carry 4-2 league records into the second half of the season Saturday. But the Falcons play four of their last six league games at home. The other coleaders divide theirs 3-3.

Ohio, saddled with a twogame MAC losing streak, plays at home against last-place Kent State, 1-5. Western Michigan, 3-3, visits defending champion Miami, 3-3, in the other conference contest. Both are in the afternoon.

Nonconference games have Racine at Ball State, 13-6; Marshall at Central Michigan, 8-9; Eastern Michigan, 4-13

Little Tigers Top Mt. Logan

Circleville's eighth grade cagers came up with a 37-25 win over visiting Chillicothe Mt. Logan Thursday.

Toren Bensonhaver led the little Tigers with 12 points, Dave Marshall had 10, Dave Holbrook six, Larry Reed five and Marc Albright and Mike Brudzinski each tallied two.

Circleville's seventh and eighth grade teams will both be in action 4:30 p.m. Monday at Washington C. H.

Westfall Girls Down Circleville

Westfall High School's girl cagers topped Circleville, 33-23, Thursday at the Tigers' gym.

Cindy Schleich led Westfall with 13 points, Karen Marshall had nine, Jan Long four, Susan Wright three while Nancy Schein and Kelly Steinhauser each added two.

Susan Crist paced Circleville with eight markers, Darla Hughes had six and Ann Frericks four to lead the scoring for the Tigers.

Westfall, 3-0, will be at Logan Elm 4 p.m. Tuesday.

at Cleveland State and Wisconsin-Green Bay at Northern Illinois, 4-13. The latter two will be played at night.

Bowling Green bowed at Toledo 77-59 earlier in the season, but the Falcons' 7-foot center Mark Cartwright did not play and 6-8 Cornelius Cash saw limited action. Both are healthy now and that worries Nichols.

"It's awfully important to us that we just break even on the boards against them. They were down injury wise the first time," the Toledo coach said.

Haley is concerned over a letdown after Bowling Green's big road victory at Ohio Wednesday.

"We've risen up and met crucial challenges before and then had a bad streak afterward," he said.

"The race is still wide open," Haley added, noting six of the seven schools are only two games apart. "Anybody can beat anybody in the league this season."

Westfall Frosh Edged, 48-47

The Westfall freshman basketball team was edged by Mt. Sterling 48-47 in overtime Thursday at Mt. Sterling.

The Mustangs now have a 5-7 record for the season and Tuesday play at Circleville.

Eric Schleich led the Mustangs with 18 points. John Long hooped 16, Chuck Mettler six, David Clem four and Neil Keller three. For Mt. Sterling Sullivan tallied 17 points.

3 Pitchers Ink Pacts With Reds

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds today announced the signing of three lefthand pitchers for 1974 and now have 12 of 39 roster players under contract.

Signed are Tommy Hall, Mike McQueen and Pat Osburn.

Hall was 8-5 last year, mostly in relief and had an earned run average of 3.46.

Wayne State Downs Cleveland

DETROIT (AP) — Senior center James Newsom scored 20 points as Wayne State used a 16-2 burst midway through the second half to down Cleveland State 76-75 in nonconference basketball Thursday night.

Cleveland State, trailing 44-39 at the half, battled to a 58-56 lead midway through the second half. Wayne recovered to reel off its 16-2 surge to take the lead with four minutes to go and held off the visitors the rest of the way.

Bert Blyleven led the Minnesota Twins pitching last season with a 20-17 record. His earned run mark was 2.52.

OSU Juggles Lineup For Wildcats

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fred Taylor, his Ohio State basketball team beaten in four of five Big Ten starts, will juggle the Buckeyes starting lineup Saturday for invading Northwestern.

Taylor is benching Wardell Jackson, the Ohio State captain and leading rebounder, with center Bill Andreas taking over Jackson's forward spot.

Jack Wolfe, a 6-6 senior from Columbus, moves into the pivot after an impressive performance in a 67-65 home loss to Purdue Monday. Wolfe is averaging 7.5 points, mostly in substitute roles this season.

Andreas, the Buckeyes' leading scorer with a 15-point average, will team with Steve Wenner at forwards with freshman Larry Bolden and Gary Repella keeping their guard jobs.

Northwestern has had even more problems winning under new Coach Tex Winter than the Buckeyes. The Wildcats are last in the Big Ten with a 1-6 record and 6-10 for all games. Ohio State is 6-9 overall.

Taylor, explaining his lineup switch, said, "We need somebody to make the big play, whether it's offensively or defensively, and to do it consistently so we can hang our hat on it."

Meanwhile, two of the three Mid-American Conference coleaders, Toledo and Bowling Green, are paired at Bowling Green. The two, along with Ohio University, pace the league with 4-2 starts.

Ohio, which has lost two in a row in the MAC, awaits Kent State and Miami, still in the running with a 3-3 record, entertains Western Michigan.

Among the major independents, Cincinnati has the day off, Dayton, 12-5, faces visiting Virginia Military and Xavier, 5-11, plays host to the Air Force.

In the Ohio Conference, Wittenberg, 7-1, tries to protect its slim lead over Muskingum with a home triumph over dangerous Mount Union, 5-3. Muskingum, 6-1, has a league date at Wooster, 4-4.

Other OC contests send Capital, 5-2, to Denison, 4-4; Marietta, 5-2, at Otterbein, 3-4; Kenyon, 3-6, at Heidelberg, 4-5, and Baldwin-Wallace, 1-8, at Oberlin, 1-6.

In the Hoosier-Buckeye Conference, Findlay, 4-6, has the dubious honor of playing at league-leading Hanover, 9-1. Hanover has a 1½-game lead on Defiance, home for Manchester, 4-7.

Earlham, 6-3, is at Wilmington, 4-6, and Bluffton, 4-6, at Anderson, 4-7.

In the President's Conference, Hiram can take an even firmer grip on the lead by winning over visiting Bethany. Hiram is 7-0 and Bethany tied for second with Allegheny at 4-2.

Case Western Reserve, 4-3, visits Allegheny in the other PC pairing.

Urbana, with its sixth victory in seven games, can break a first-place Mid-Ohio Conference tie with Malone. Urbana faces Ohio Dominican, 1-3, at Urbana while Rio Grande, 3-2, is at Cedarville, 3-3, in the other MOC contest.

Elsewhere, Rochester is at Ohio Wesleyan, Eastern Michigan at Cleveland State, Youngstown at Akron, Central State at Kentucky State, Northwood, Mich., at Tiffin, Point Park at Ashland and Wright State at Franklin.

Irish Smash De Paul, 101-72

By HOWARD SMITH
AP Sports Writer

"I think they just had too much overall strength," admitted DePaul basketball Coach Ray Meyer after his club absorbed a 101-72 beating at the hands of Notre Dame Thursday night.

"We can't go to the bench but they can ... for a sixth, seventh and eighth man. We can usually play most first fives even, but one of our problems was that we got tired," added Meyer, "and with their tremendous shooting, they shot us right out of the ball park."

The Irish, ranked No. 3 nationally, led by just three points at intermission but broke it open early in the second half and coasted to their 14th victory in 15 tries.

Only three other ranked teams were in action. No. 9 Providence was upset 88-87 by Duquesne in overtime, No. 10 Long Beach State defeated Cal-Santa Barbara 78-68, and No. 15 Louisville dumped North Texas State 97-81.

Gary Brokaw, hitting 12 of 16 shots from the floor, was the big man for the winners with 25 points. Freshman Adrian Dantley contributed 23 points and 15 rebounds, and John Shumate added 19 points and 10 rebounds for the Irish.

The Irish got a scare late in the game when Dantley suddenly collapsed on the bench. He regained consciousness in the locker room, was hospitalized and was to undergo tests today.

Duquesne reserve Bernie O'Keefe sank a 20-foot jump shot at the buzzer to beat Providence. The Dukes, who trailed by three points with 12 seconds left, got possession when freshman Norm Nixon stole an inbound pass and passed to O'Keefe for the winning bucket.

Don McLane scored 24 points and Lionel Billings 21 for the winners. Marvin Barnes had 27 points and 23 rebounds for the Friars, who had won 10 straight.

Roscoe Pondexter scored 26 points to lead Long Beach past Santa Barbara. Bob Gross added 19 points for the 49ers who are 15-2 for the year.

Boilermakers Seek 7th Straight Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Purdue's unbeaten Boilermakers try to win a seventh successive Big Ten basketball game for the first time in 44 seasons in a road tangle Saturday against tough Michigan State.

As the Boilermakers prepared for the key contest on Saturday's five-game conference card, coach Fred Schaus conceded after Monday night's 67-65 squeeze past Ohio State "We may have been a bit tired both physically and emotionally."

"We seemed to be a half step behind defensively. But we played well on the road and you've got to be pleased any time you win on the road, no matter how close."

Second-place Michigan, trailing Purdue by one game at 5-1, also is on the road against Illinois (1-4), while likewise oncebeaten Indiana (4-1) is host to Iowa (1-4).

Other Saturday games include last-place Northwestern (1-6) at Ohio State (1-4) and Wisconsin (3-2) at Minnesota (1-4).

Not since 1930, when Purdue, led by Johnny Wooden, now UCLA's celebrated coach, and Stretch Murphy, posted a perfect 10-0 Big Ten mark, have the Boilermakers won their first seven league games.

Looking ahead to the regionally-televized battle with the Boilermakers and Monday night's invasion by third-ranked Notre Dame, Michigan State coach Gus Ganakas said, "This will be the biggest weekend of basketball here in our school's history."

In a conference season opener, Purdue outlasted Michigan State at Lafayette, Ind., 77-75, on John Garrett's layup with seven seconds left. Since then Purdue has won five straight league contests, including one and two point triumphs over Michigan and Ohio State.

The East Lansing, Mich., battle should be a run-and-gun affair matching the Big Ten's two highest scoring clubs, Michigan State setting an 83.6-point pace in attaining its 5-2 mark and Purdue with an 82.3 average.

Host Illinois will be trying to snap an overall six-game losing streak against Michigan whose Campy Russell leads Big Ten scoring with a 22.5 average.

"Illinois is always tough in Champaign," said Michigan coach Johnny Orr, "and we're expecting another tough game down there."

Willie's Dillies

By BILL MCGAFFNEY
Herald Sports Editor

It just doesn't seem possible but a check of the calendar reveals that we are coming down to the last couple of weeks of the regular basketball season.

The old saying that "time flies" certainly holds true but with the energy crisis hanging around at least it could slow down a little bit and let the rest of us catch up.

Soon it will be time for the high school cagers to hit the tournament trail and we must admit we are looking forward to the action and excitement that goes with it. In our book there isn't any sport event that sets the adrenalin flowing more than a tight tournament tilt set to the music of a roaring bunch of faithful followers.

Sites have been set for the Central District sectional tournaments.

Circleville, Teays Valley and Logan Elm will be in the AA sectionals at Grove City High School. Dates will be Feb. 22, 23 and March 1, 2. The rest of the field at Grove City includes: Dublin, Bexley, Hamilton Twp., Mifflin and Bishop Hartley. The upper and lower bracket winners will advance to the District 1 tournament at the Columbus Fairgrounds Coliseum, March 4, 5, 7.

Westfall will compete in the Central District A sectional tournament at Groveport High School, Feb. 22, 23 and March 1, 2. Other teams at Groveport will be: Milford Center, Jonathan Alder, Licking Heights, New Albany, St. Charles and Wehrle. Upper and lower bracket winners will compete in the District tournament at the Fairground Coliseum, March 6, 7, 9.

Amanda-Clearcreek will be in the Central District A sectional at Lancaster High School and Zane Trace will compete in the Southeastern District A sectional at Chillicothe High School.

Our "fearless" forecast—Tigers will take two . . . Vikings wrap up Metro crown . . . Braves will take the Liberty out of Union . . . Mustangs to ride roughshod through Paint Valley.

Until next time, have a nice day-be a good sport.

Toledo Befuddles MAC Cage Experts

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Toledo, winning with toughness and defense, continues to befuddle Mid-American Conference basketball experts.

Picked for last place in a preseason poll, the Rockets own a share of the lead with Ohio University and Bowling Green at the halfway point.

"I don't think I've ever had a team play as well together as this one," said Bob Nichols, in his ninth season as the Toledo coach.

"We've been awfully consistent on defense, always good and sometimes great," Nichols added.

Pat Haley, whose Bowling Green team entertains Toledo Saturday night, agrees.

"They're the best defensive team in the league," Haley said of the Rockets. "They play together better than anybody else, too. Toledo is the best team we've played this year."

Toledo, Bowling Green and Ohio all carry 4-2 league records into the second half of the season Saturday. But the Falcons play four of their last six league games at home. The other co-leaders divide theirs 3-3.

Ohio, saddled with a twogame MAC losing streak, plays at home against last-place Kent State, 1-5. Western Michigan, 3-3, visits defending champion Miami, 3-3, in the other conference contest. Both are in the afternoon.

Nonconference games have Racine at Ball State, 13-6; Marshall at Central Michigan, 8-9; Eastern Michigan, 4-13

Little Tigers Top Mt. Logan

Circleville's eighth grade cagers came up with a 37-25 win over visiting Chillicothe Mt. Logan Thursday.

Toren Bensonhaver led the little Tigers with 12 points, Dave Marshall had 10, Dave Holbrook six, Larry Reed five and Marc Albright and Mike Brudzinski each tallied two.

Circleville's seventh and eighth grade teams will both be in action 4:30 p.m. Monday at Washington C. H.

Westfall Girls Down Circleville

Westfall High School's girl cagers topped Circleville, 33-23, Thursday at the Tigers' gym.

Cindy Schleich led Westfall with 13 points, Karen Marshall had nine, Jan Long four, Susan Wright three while Nancy Schein and Kelly Steinhauer each added two.

Susan Crist paced Circleville with eight markers, Darla Hughes had six and Ann Frericks four to lead the scoring for the Tigers.

Westfall, 3-0, will be at Logan Elm 4 p.m. Tuesday.

at Cleveland State and Wisconsin-Green Bay at Northern Illinois, 4-13. The latter two will be played at night.

Bowling Green bowed at Toledo 77-59 earlier in the season, but the Falcons' 7-foot center Mark Cartwright did not play and 6-8 Cornelius Cash saw limited action. Both are healthy now and that worries Nichols.

"It's awfully important to us that we just break even on the boards against them. They were down injury wise the first time," the Toledo coach said.

Haley is concerned over a letdown after Bowling Green's big road victory at Ohio Wednesday.

"We've risen up and met crucial challenges before and then had a bad streak afterward," he said.

"The race is still wide open," Haley added, noting six of the seven schools are only two games apart. "Anybody can beat anybody in the league this season."

Westfall Frosh Edged, 48-47

The Westfall freshman basketball team was edged by Mt. Sterling 48-47 in overtime Thursday at Mt. Sterling.

The Mustangs now have a 5-7 record for the season and Tuesday play at Circleville.

Eric Schleich led the Mustangs with 18 points. John Long hooped 16, Chuck Mettler six, David Clem four and Neil Keller three. For Mt. Sterling Sullivan tallied 17 points.

3 Pitchers Ink Pacts With Reds

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds today announced the signing of three lefthand pitchers for 1974 and now have 12 of 39 roster players under contract.

Signed are Tommy Hall, Mike McQueen and Pat Osburn.

Hall was 8-5 last year, mostly in relief and had an earned run average of 3.46.

Wayne State Downs Cleveland

DETROIT (AP) — Senior center James Newsom scored 20 points as Wayne State used a 16-2 burst midway through the second half to down Cleveland State 76-75 in nonconference basketball Thursday night.

Cleveland State, trailing 44-39 at the half, battled to a 58-56 lead midway through the second half. Wayne recovered to reel off its 16-2 surge to take the lead with four minutes to go and held off the visitors the rest of the way.

Bert Blyleven led the Minnesota Twins pitching last season with a 20-17 record. His earned run mark was 2.52.

OSU Juggles Lineup For Wildcats

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fred Taylor, his Ohio State basketball team beaten in four of five Big Ten starts, will juggle the Buckeyes starting lineup Saturday for invading Northwestern.

Taylor is benching Wardell Jackson, the Ohio State captain and leading rebounder, with center Bill Andreas taking over Jackson's forward spot.

Jack Wolfe, a 6-6 senior from Columbus, moves into the pivot after an impressive performance in a 67-65 home loss to Purdue Monday. Wolfe is averaging 7.5 points, mostly in substitute roles this season.

Andreas, the Buckeyes' leading scorer with a 15-point average, will team with Steve Wenner at forwards with freshman Larry Bolden and Gary Repella keeping their guard jobs.

Northwestern has had even more problems winning under new Coach Tex Winter than the Buckeyes. The Wildcats are last in the Big Ten with a 1-6 record and 6-10 for all games. Ohio State is 6-9 overall.

Taylor, explaining his lineup switch, said, "We need somebody to make the big play, whether it's offensively or defensively, and to do it consistently so we can hang our hat on it."

Meanwhile, two of the three Mid-American Conference co-leaders, Toledo and Bowling Green, are paired at Bowling Green. The two, along with Ohio University, pace the league with 4-2 starts.

Ohio, which has lost two in a row in the MAC, awaits Kent State and Miami, still in the running with a 3-3 record, entertains Western Michigan.

Among the major independents, Cincinnati has the day off, Dayton, 12-5, faces visiting Virginia Military and Xavier, 5-11, plays host to the Air Force.

In the Ohio Conference, Wittenberg, 7-1, tries to protect its slim lead over Muskingum with a home triumph over dangerous Mount Union, 5-3. Muskingum, 6-1, has a league date at Wooster, 4-4.

Other OC contests send Capital, 5-2, to Denison, 4-4; Marietta, 5-2, at Otterbein, 3-4; Kenyon, 3-6, at Heidelberg, 4-5, and Baldwin-Wallace, 1-8, at Oberlin, 1-6.

In the Hoosier-Buckeye Conference, Findlay, 4-6, has the dubious honor of playing at league-leading Hanover, 9-1. Hanover has a 1½-game lead on Defiance, home for Manchester, 4-7.

Earlham, 6-3, is at Wilmington, 4-6, and Bluffton, 4-6, at Anderson, 4-7.

In the President's Conference, Hiram can take an even firmer grip on the lead by winning over visiting Bethany. Hiram is 7-0 and Bethany tied for second with Allegheny at 4-2.

Case Western Reserve, 4-3, visits Allegheny in the other PC pairing.

Urbana, with its sixth victory in seven games, can break a first-place Mid-Ohio Conference tie with Malone. Urbana faces Ohio Dominican, 1-3, at Urbana while Rio Grande, 3-2, is at Cedarville, 3-3, in the other MOC contest.

Elsewhere, Rochester is at Ohio Wesleyan, Eastern Michigan at Cleveland State, Youngstown at Akron, Central State at Kentucky State, Northwood, Mich., at Tiffin, Point Park at Ashland and Wright State at Franklin.

Irish Smash De Paul, 101-72

By HOWARD SMITH
AP Sports Writer

"I think they just had too much overall strength," admitted DePaul basketball Coach Ray Meyer after his club absorbed a 101-72 beating at the hands of Notre Dame Thursday night.

"We can't go to the bench but they can ... for a sixth, seventh and eighth man. We can usually play most first fives even, but one of our problems was that we got tired," added Meyer, "and with their tremendous shooting, they shot us right out of the ball park."

The Irish, ranked No. 3 nationally, led by just three points at intermission but broke it open early in the second half and coasted to their 14th victory in 15 tries.

Only three other ranked teams were in action. No. 9 Providence was upset 88-87 by Duquesne in overtime, No. 10 Long Beach State defeated Cal-Santa Barbara 78-68, and No. 15 Louisville dumped North Texas State 97-81.

Gary Brokaw, hitting 12 of 16 shots from the floor, was the big man for the winners with 25 points. Freshman Adrian Dantley contributed 23 points and 15 rebounds, and John Shumate added 19 points and 10 rebounds for the Irish.

The Irish got a scare late in the game when Dantley suddenly collapsed on the bench. He regained consciousness in the locker room, was hospitalized and was to undergo tests today.

Duquesne reserve Bernie O'Keefe sank a 20-foot jump shot at the buzzer to beat Providence. The Dukes, who trailed by three points with 12 seconds left, got possession when freshman Norm Nixon stole an inbounds pass and passed to O'Keefe for the winning bucket.

Don McLane scored 24 points and Lionel Billings 21 for the winners. Marvin Barnes had 27 points and 23 rebounds for the Friars, who had won 10 straight.

Roscoe Pondexter scored 26 points to lead Long Beach past Santa Barbara. Bob Gross added 19 points for the 49ers who are 15-2 for the year.

Boilermakers Seek 7th Straight Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Purdue's unbeaten Boilermakers try to win a seventh successive Big Ten basketball game for the first time in 44 seasons in a road tangle Saturday against tough Michigan State.

As the Boilermakers prepared for the key contest on Saturday's five-game conference card, coach Fred Schaus conceded after Monday night's 67-65 squeeze past Ohio State "We may have been a bit tired both physically and emotionally."

"We seemed to be a half step behind defensively. But we played well on the road and you've got to be pleased any time you win on the road, no matter how close."

Second-place Michigan, trailing Purdue by one game at 5-1, also is on the road against Illinois (1-4), while likewise oncebeaten Indiana (4-1) is host to Iowa (1-4).

Other Saturday games include last-place Northwestern (1-6) at Ohio State (1-4) and Wisconsin (3-2) at Minnesota (1-4).

Not since 1930, when Purdue, led by Johnny Wooden, now UCLA's celebrated coach, and Stretch Murphy, posted a perfect 10-0 Big Ten mark, have the Boilermakers won their first seven league games.

Looking ahead to the regionally-televized battle with the Boilermakers and Monday night's invasion by third-ranked Notre Dame, Michigan State coach Gus Ganakas said, "This will be the biggest weekend of basketball here in our school's history."

In a conference season opener, Purdue outlasted Michigan State at Lafayette, Ind., 77-75, on John Garrett's layup with seven seconds left. Since then Purdue has won five straight league contests, including one and two point triumphs over Michigan and Ohio State.

The East Lansing, Mich., battle should be a run-and-gun affair matching the Big Ten's two highest scoring clubs, Michigan State setting an 83.6-point pace in attaining its 5-2 mark and Purdue with an 82.3 average.

Host Illinois will be trying to snap an overall six-game losing streak against Michigan whose Campy Russell leads Big Ten scoring with a 22.5 average.

"Illinois is always tough in Champaign," said Michigan coach Johnny Orr, "and we're expecting another tough game down there."

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR SATURDAY
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): A period of adjustment. Profit by experience and study the methods of successful people. Make moves designed to enhance position, insure gains.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Mixed planetary influences. Good opportunities for advancement abound in your area but you may have to search them out yourself. Personal interests highly favored.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): With an objective viewpoint in all situations and a determination to curb your innate hypersensitivity, you can do well now.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Emphasize your stability now. Many will look to you for support and guidance. Without overtaxing yourself, give help wherever you can.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Achievement will be largely up to yourself now. You won't have much planetary help, but YOU can light up the fires of enthusiasm and good will.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): You won't find any in hiding place for your dilemmas, so you might just as well face up to them and work them out. But do so in a relaxed manner and with no anxiety.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): You may be asked to do a little extra, to change a plan. If it won't interfere with more urgent considerations, be agreeable. Good will is a fine investment.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23): Stick to the tried-and-true now. You can advance your status by putting forth the best efforts in your own field. This is not a good period for starting new ventures.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Stand firm on principles and back good intentions with ACTION! You have a good chance now to profit by your many talents and fine gift of organization.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): A businesslike, but also an understanding approach to all matters will be needed for best returns. Some friction is possible, but don't add fuel to the fire.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): It may be easier for you to handle unusual or difficult tasks now than to make progress in routine affairs. Curb a tendency toward restlessness.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Your goal now should be to capture the attention of those in a position to further your aims, so polish up your wares — and your personality.

YOU BORN TODAY are a roundly competent person, with a special bent for the creative, the artistic. It may take you some time to decide on your right niche in life but, once on the move, all mountains become molehills in the climb, and obstacles merely healthy challenges. You are suited to journalism, the arts, science, and progressive undertaking. You can keep a secret, aid anonymously, give that special lift to co-workers that makes their days brighter.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — Public television's current "Theater in America" series is a good project with a noble aim. But it isn't as representative of theater outside New York as the title implies.

The 18-week series, which began Jan. 23 with "Enemies" by Maxim Gorky, has 16 shows now and two more to be named later. Of the 16, six are repeats.

And all those reruns were produced by WNET here, according to a spokeswoman for the station, which put together "Theater in America" for the Public Broadcasting Service.

Of 10 first-run shows now on the bill, only four are "regional" theater efforts in the sense they're produced and performed by companies based outside of Manhattan.

The shows are "Cyrano de Bergerac" by the American Conservatory Theater of San Francisco; "In Fashion" by the Actors' Theater of Louisville, Ky.; "Feasting with Panthers" by the Trinity Square Repertory Company of Providence, R.I., and "The Widowing of Mrs. Holroyd" by the Long Wharf Theater of New Haven, Conn.

The fifth show is sort of regional — a Yale University production of Leonard Bernstein's "Mass," taped last summer in Vienna.

Of the five other new shows, two are WNET efforts and three are by off-Broadway, New York-based drama groups — the New York Shakespeare Festival, the Chelsea Theater Center and the since-disbanded Lincoln Center Repertory Theater.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

EXECUTOR'S PUBLIC AUCTION OF 164 ACRE PICKAWAY TWP., PICKAWAY COUNTY FARM Saturday, February 9, 1974 Beginning at 2:30 P.M.

SALE TO BE CONDUCTED ON THE PREMISES

Located 5 miles South of Circleville; 2 miles East of St. Rt. 23 and 1 mile East of Logan Elm State Park on St. Rt. 361. Farm to be offered in three separate tracts and then as a whole and will be sold in the manner which results in the highest sale price.

TRACT 1: Contains approximately 22.3 acres improved with 2 story frame dwelling of Victorian architect with 4 large rooms and bath down, 3 large rooms up, sliding doors between living room and dining room, fireplace in living room and parlor, spiral stairway from front entrance, rear stairway from large kitchen; kitchen has wall cabinets and counter space; large bay window in living room; partial basement. Outbuildings include large horse barn with mortise and pinned hand hewn framing, cattle barn with wood stave silo, scale house and tool shed. Shade provided by maple and sycamore trees.

NOTE: This farm has been in the same family for well over one hundred years. If you have been looking for acreage with a large older home to refurbish and afford your family with country living, don't fail to inspect this farm.

TRACT 2: Containing approximately 34.4 acres lying north of St. Rt. 361 and east of tract 1, all tillable vacant land suitable for the building of a new home with acreage or developed into smaller tracts.

TRACT 3: Containing approximately 107.3 acres of vacant land all tillable located on the south side of St. Rt. 361 which could be platted in smaller tracts.

NOTE: The above mentioned farm is ideally located in a good agricultural area close to the rapidly developing industrial area of Circleville. Farm is divided by St. Rt. 361 with 107.3 acres on the south side of said highway and the 22.3 acres and 34.4 acres on the north side of said highway and the combined frontage is approximately 4,000 feet.
Farm is practically all tillable and in a good state of cultivation, fences fair, drainage average.

TERMS OF SALE: Farm is sold subject to all zoning, government regulations, easement or record and legal highways.
A deposit of 10 per cent of purchase price will be required at time of sale, balance of purchase price due upon delivery of deed on or before March 9, 1974. Purchasers assume and agree to pay all taxes due and payable December installment 1974.

If farm should sell as a unit it will be settled for upon the acreage basis described in the present description. Should farm sell in more than one tract, it will be settled for upon the acreage designated in this ad.

OPEN HOUSE: Sunday, January 27, 1974 from 2 to 4 P.M. or inspection by appointment by calling auctioneer.

Golden State
Tops Rockets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Never give a good shooter such as Rick Barry too much time. Houston gave the Golden State star two seconds and it cost the Rockets a National Basketball Association victory.

Calvin Murphy had seemingly snapped Houston's three-game losing streak and Golden State's five-game winning streak when he hit a 22-foot jump shot for a 108-107 Rocket victory Thursday night.

"Anything can happen in two seconds," said Barry who gave the Warriors a 109-108 victory with a 28-foot jumper at the buzzer.

"It was a good shot," said Barry who scored a total of 38 points as the Warriors moved to within one game of idle firstplace Los Angeles in the Pacific Division. "I had time to catch it, turn and shoot. I didn't just have to throw it up."

Rudy Tomjanovich led Houston with 30 points.

Phoenix beat Portland 112-100 in the only other NBA action. There were no games in the American Basketball Association.

Charlie Scott scored 25 points and Neal Walk 22 for Phoenix, which opened up a 15-point lead in the second period. Then Phoenix held off Portland, who got a season high 38 points from Sidney Wicks and 24 by Geoff Petrie.

Red Hot Tamale
Wins Latonia

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP) — Red Hot Tamale took the $4,500 featured eighth race at Latonia Thursday night by two lengths in 1:20 3-5 after leading wire to wire.

The winner paid $4.60, $3 and $3. Mr. Champ and Native Shoes paid $3.20 and $4.20 after finishing in a dead heat for second.

Ruddin Ruddin and Magaton Miss, 11-3, paid $32.60 in the daily double. Attendance was 5,566.

Exorcism: 95 Per Cent Hokum?

NEW YORK (AP) — "Get out of him, O accursed devil, and yield place to Christ who has won his soul."

So goes the key phrase of the ancient church rite of exorcism, preceded by an extensive sequence of other prayers—a ritual that is getting considerable notice these days.

"The attention is a bit frenetic, a kind of hysterical reaction," says the Rev. Edward B. Brueggeman, a Roman Catholic theologian of Xavier University in Cincinnati and a specialist on the subject.

"Much of it is hokum—about 95 per cent of it."

However, as a result of the current movie, "The Exorcist," and the general fascination with the occult, many churches and their institutions have experienced a wave of claimed cases of demon possession.

"All of a sudden there's a plethora of it all over the land," says Father Brueggeman, who teaches a special course on cults in the modern world. Both in theology and through the church's experience, he added in a telephone interview, the phenomenon of Satanic possession is extremely rare, although there are Scriptural premises for its possibility.

"We know there are powerful spirits of evil in the world through the freedom permitted by God," he said. "Our time had its stark demonstrations of that in Hitler and Stalin. And it's well that we should realize this."

However, regarding the current spate of upset people complaining they or others are suffering "possession," he said the danger is that their problem usually is psychological, such as unleashed guilt feelings or mental illusions, needing treatment.

Typical of cases in which his advice has been enlisted, he said, was that of a young woman who was "simply hungry for attention. It was a case of a disturbed mind more than anything else."

Nevertheless, a rash of such complaints and inquiries have descended on church officials and pastors, usually as a result of the movie.

At St. Hugo's parish in Bloomfield Hills, Mich., the Rev. James Chichon says about 20 people, mostly college students, have showed up there "really rattled," reporting prolonged loss of sleep or other effects.

"Most of them have been highly exposed to the occult on campus," he says, adding that he can see "absolutely no good at all" resulting from the movie. "Anyone who takes the kids to see it are out of their minds."

Many other parishes report a spate of alleged "possession" cases by people given nightmares or other anxieties by the movie. Of a youth who claimed some of the movie's odd audiovisual sensations, the Rev. Vince Connor of St. Jude's parish in suburban Denver, says:

"We said the prayers of exorcism over him more for his own consolation than as part of the ritual."

Golden State Tops Rockets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Never give a good shooter such as Rick Barry too much time. Houston gave the Golden State star two seconds and it cost the Rockets a National Basketball Association victory.

Calvin Murphy had seemingly snapped Houston's three-game losing streak and Golden State's five-game winning streak when he hit a 22-foot jump shot for a 108-107 Rocket victory Thursday night.

"Anything can happen in two seconds," said Barry who gave the Warriors a 109-108 victory with a 28-foot jumper at the buzzer.

"It was a good shot," said Barry who scored a total of 38 points as the Warriors moved to within one game of idle firstplace Los Angeles in the Pacific Division. "I had time to catch it, turn and shoot. I didn't just have to throw it up."

Rudy Tomjanovich led Houston with 30 points.

Phoenix beat Portland 112-100 in the only other NBA action. There were no games in the American Basketball Association.

Charlie Scott scored 25 points and Neal Walk 22 for Phoenix, which opened up a 15-point lead in the second period. Then Phoenix held off Portland, who got a season high 38 points from Sidney Wicks and 24 by Geoff Petrie.

Red Hot Tamale Wins Latonia

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP) —

Red Hot Tamale took the $4,500 featured eighth race at Latonia Thursday night by two lengths in 1:20 3-5 after leading wire to wire.

The winner paid $4.60, $3 and $3. Mr. Champ and Native Shoes paid $3.20 and $4.20 after finishing in a dead heat for second.

Ruddin Ruddin and Magaton Miss, 11-3, paid $32.60 in the daily double.

Attendance was 5,566.

Exorcism: 95 Per Cent Hokum?

NEW YORK (AP) — "Get out of him, O accursed devil, and yield place to Christ who has won his soul."

So goes the key phrase of the ancient church rite of exorcism, preceded by an extensive sequence of other prayers—a ritual that is getting considerable notice these days.

"The attention is a bit frenetic, a kind of hysterical reaction," says the Rev. Edward B. Brueggeman, a Roman Catholic theologian of Xavier University in Cincinnati and a specialist on the subject.

"Much of it is hokum—about 95 per cent of it."

However, as a result of the current movie, "The Exorcist," and the general fascination with the occult, many churches and their institutions have experienced a wave of claimed cases of demon possession.

"All of a sudden there's a plethora of it all over the land," says Father Brueggeman, who teaches a special course on cults in the modern world.

Both in theology and through the church's experience, he added in a telephone interview, the phenomenon of Satanic possession is extremely rare, although there are Scriptural premises for its possibility.

"We know there are powerful spirits of evil in the world through the freedom permitted by God," he said. "Our time had its stark demonstrations of that in Hitler and Stalin. And it's well that we should realize this."

However, regarding the current spate of upset people complaining they or others are suffering "possession," he said the danger is that their problem usually is psychological, such as unleashed guilt feelings or mental illusions, needing treatment.

Typical of cases in which his advice has been enlisted, he said, was that of a young woman who was "simply hungry for attention. It was a case of a disturbed mind more than anything else."

Nevertheless, a rash of such complaints and inquiries have descended on church officials and pastors, usually as a result of the movie.

At St. Hugo's parish in Bloomfield Hills, Mich., the Rev. James Chichon says about 20 people, mostly college students, have showed up there "really rattled," reporting prolonged loss of sleep or other effects.

"Most of them have been highly exposed to the occult on campus," he says, adding that he can see "absolutely no good at all" resulting from the movie. "Anyone who takes the kids to see it are out of their minds."

Many other parishes report a spate of alleged "possession" cases by people given nightmares or other anxieties by the movie. Of a youth who claimed some of the movie's odd audiovisual sensations, the Rev. Vince Connor of St. Jude's parish in suburban Denver, says:

"We said the prayers of exorcism over him more for his own consolation than as part of the ritual."

Rotarians Enjoy Talk By Judge Stevenson

LAW DAY AT ROTARY—Rotarian George Young, right, introduced Thursday's guest speaker Judge Earl Stevenson of the Fourth District Court of Appeals. Several judges, attorneys and law enforcement officers attended the meeting which centered around the topic of our state laws and the recent changes in the law structure.

Circleville attorney George Young presented the guest speaker Judge Earl Stevenson to fellow Rotarians at Thursday's luncheon meeting. Judge Stevenson along with Homer Abele and Gordon Gray make up the Fourth District Court of Appeals which serves the Pickaway County area. Stevenson is the presiding judge of the Court's three judges.

He explained the quiet revolution that is taking place since the major changes in the Ohio Revised Code which went into effect Jan. 1 of this year. These changes altered almost one entire book of the state laws. With the implementation of the changes in law the 29th section of laws underwent drastic changes in what's legal and illegal, titles and sentences for crimes.

Judge Stevenson said many of the law personnel are finding it necessary to return to school to "brush up" on all these changes and the effects they will have on their jobs.

The conclusion of the judge's speech included several colorful jokes and puns about the local attorneys and Police Chief Robert Temple. But his last remark was that Pickaway County enjoys high standards and quality of

Reconsider, PUCO Asked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio was asked Thursday to reconsider a recent ruling that utilities in the state can't take charitable contributions into consideration when requesting rate hikes.

The Ohio Citizens Council, in requesting a hearing on the ruling, said the decision would have an adverse impact on charitable institutions in the state.

William D. Ginn of Cleveland, council president, said the commission did not give adequate consideration to the effects of the decision on "all charitable, educational, health and social service organizations in the state."

The OCC proposed that some contributions to charitable organizations, if they meet certain standards, be included in rate increase request calculations.

Terry L. Hicks, 19, 202 Nicholas Drive, 35 miles per hour in a 25 zone.

Daniel H. Smith, 23, 213 W. Ohio St., stop sign violation.

Tape Player Stolen

Glenn E. Engle, South Lebanon, notified city police that someone took a $100 tape player from his car while it was parked on W. Main St. Thursday night.

Assaults On Officers Increase 179 Per Cent

COLUMBUS—Assaults on Ohio State Highway Patrol officers have increased 179 per cent in the last two years, according to Patrol Superintendent Robert M. Chiaramonte.

"We are concerned at the accelerating number of instances in which our men are being attacked in a variety of ways," said Chiaramonte. "When 271 officers are subjected to unprovoked and unwarranted assaults while performing their sworn duties, as they were in 1973, we have to wonder where it will end."

By checking a vehicle's license plate number through computerized stolen car and wanted persons files prior to stopping the vehicle, Chiaramonte said, the Patrol officer overcomes the element of surprise as to what situation he may encounter as he approaches the car.

"There has always been an occasional belligerent or intoxicated individual who will submit to arrest only after a fight, but when 61 men receive injuries in one year the situation has reached drastic proportions," the Colonel stated. The injuries in these cases ranged from minor abrasions to gunshot wounds.

"Everytime we stop a car we have to be prepared to defend ourselves or to overcome physical resistance to arrest," the Colonel said. "We have had fine support from the courts in prosecuting these persons, and in numerous instances private citizens have assisted our officers in subduing belligerents."

"Despite the fact that not one person who attacked our officers did so successfully or prevented his arrest, we do not expect the trend to reverse itself," Chiaramonte said. "We can only continue to meet this force with necessary force or surrender the highways to those who support the rule of force above the rule of law."

Liquor License Suspended

The Ohio State Department of Liquor Control suspended the liquor license of Michael D. and Marilyn J. Radabaugh, South End Market, 1033 S. Washington St. for 14 days.

The suspension will begin noon Feb. 25 until Mar. 11.

The case, heard before the liquor control commission, involved the employment of a minor who did handle and or participate in the sale and or delivery of intoxicating liquor.

A second violation, of a minor handling intoxicating liquor, was dismissed in favor of the first violation.
